GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of Nellore, dated 9th April 1884.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 2nd May 1884, No. A.D.J.-41.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 23 years 4 months and 24 days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 12-8-0 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the entry recorded opposite to No. 11 in the first page of the application that the Collector proposes the grant of a pension of Rs. 13-9-9 per mensem instead of Rs. 12-8-0 only, the amount recommended by this office. The difference, it is presumed, is due to the calculation of the pensionary emoluments for the periods during which the applicant was employed in the Chundi estate, viz., from 25th September 1876 to 10th February 1879, and from 11th May 1880 to 10th May 1881, at the full rates of salaries which he received from the Foreign State instead of at the net salaries which he retained after payment of the prescribed pensionary contribution to Government.

2. It is observed that the applicant during the period of his employment in the Chundi estate, from 11th May 1880 to 10th May 1881, paid the contribution to Government on account of pension at a rate lower than the proper rate. There remains, therefore, a balance of Rs. 7-14-0 still due from him, as detailed in this office letter to the Collector, No. A.D.K.-123, dated 22nd October 1883, and the amount will be recovered from the arrears of pension due to him.

3. The delay in the disposal of the case is due to references made in respect of the recovery of the pensionary contribution which the applicant failed to pay until recently when steps were taken by this office for the recovery.

4. In accordance with rule 4, under section 134, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 69 of the code.

ORDER—dated 30th May 1884, No. 417, Pension.

Under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Gokarakonda Ramanjulu Naidu, late clerk, Sub-Collector's office, Nellore, an invalid pension of Rs. (12-8-0) twelve and annas eight per mensem, payable at Ongole from 7th July 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-three years four months and twenty-four days.

2. The Collector's recommendation for the grant of a pension of Rs. 13-9-9 instead of Rs. 12-8-0, to which the applicant is entitled, appears to be due to an erroneous method of calculating average emoluments.

3. As the amount of pensionary contribution paid by the applicant during the period of his employment in the Chundi estate is reported by the Accountant-General to have fallen short of the proper amount by Rs. 7-14-0, the same will be recovered at the first disbursement of the arrears of pension herein sanctioned.

To,

The Accountant General
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to your remarks nos: 16 and 29 contained in your No: $\frac{A. DK}{106}$ dated 24-9-83, I have the honor to forward herewith an extract from the statement of services of the individual in question as furnished by the Director of Revenue Settlement, Madras, this being all the information available on the subject.

Pens No. 662 of 84

2. The transfer of the applicant's services to the Chundi estate was made under the orders of Government in their Revenue Dep.t No 755, dated 17th May 1878 and it cannot therefore I presume, be construed as resignation forfeiting previous services although the period itself is non-qualifying on account of nonpayment of a pensionary contribution. (Vide clause 2. Sec: 96 of the Civil Pension code).

3. As regards your 35, I beg to point out that the salary of the applicant at Chundi was as follows. His net salary Rs 40 plus Rs 4-12-9 his pensionary contribution which makes a gross salary of Rs 44-12-9 and not Rs 40 as you seem to have taken it. and Rs 40 was therefore taken as his emoluments for the purposes of calculating pension

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
