2. This individual is the member of a family which owned some zemin Villages and were well to do sometime ago. They contracted debts and their Villages one by one came to be sold. They are now in reduced circumstances and plunged into sorrow. N. Streenivasa Row has been an inefficient Gumastah for some time, he has been constantly reporting himself sick and frequently obtained leave. At last he was himself tired of constantly applying for leave and applied for permission to retire, on which he was sent to the civil surgeon who invalided him.

I think his misfortunes have told on his mind and that he is never likely to regain mental vigour and energy.
