Deposition given on solemn affirmation by Sheik Mohiuddin pensioned peon residing at Casba Palladam and aged 82 years, dated 29th August 1883.-

Question.- In verifying the services of Taluk peon Danappalaiyam Venkatarama Naicken from the Huzur Records, pay abstracts for January, March and August 1839 and September 1860 are not forthcoming.- Do you know whether he was in the service in those 4 months, or whether he was not suspended or dismissed or his services were not dispensed with during that period?

Answer.- I was appointed Peon 10 years prior to the appointment of Danappalaiyam Venkatrama Naicken as Peon which is about 1831. From the date of my appointment I was doing duty in Palladam

Taluq only and I was not transferred to any other Taluq. It is 10 years since I was pensioned. The above Venkataramanaicken was also serving with me in the same Taluq and this I know. As he was all along serving with me, I say that he was in the service during the above 4 months. He was neither suspended nor dismissed, nor were his services dispensed with during the time in question.—

Deposition given on solemn affirmation by Panappalaiyam Venkatarama Naicken, Peon Palladam Taluk, dated 29th August 1883.–

Question.– In verifying your services from the Huzur Records the Pay Abstracts for January March and August 1859 and September 1860 are not forthcoming. What appointments did you hold during those months and on what pay. State in detail.

Answer.– I was peon on a pay of Rs 3 1/2 in January, March and August referred to and a peon on Rs [illegible] in September 1860.–

Question.– Was there any break in your service during the above period such as suspension or dismissal, or were your services dispensed with, or did you obtain any leave?

Answer.— From the date of my appointment to the Government service to the date of my retirement, I was not for even one day suspended or dismissed, nor were my services dispensed with. So I say there was no suspension or other breaks during the above 4 months. But I cannot say now whether I had any leave in those months or not, as I do not remember about it as many years have elapsed since that period.—

Question.— Are there witnesses who know the above facts and who served along with you?

Answer.— Moyyandampalayam Venkatrama Naicken, late Peon of this Taluq and now a Pensioner, and Shaik Mohi-ud-din both served along with me. They know the fact of my having been in the service. They should be examined as witnesses.—

4. Question.— In October 1873 you and Mohi-ud-din Khan have both signed in the Pay abstract and received pay; what is the reason of it? were you on leave and did he act for you, and if so from what date to what date were you on leave?

Answer.— I do remember having had leave in October 1873, but as to how many days' leave and from what date to what date I am unable to say, as I neither have any note thereof with me nor remember the details.—
