12TH JUNE 1884, No. 503, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From J. W. HANDLEY, Esq., Chief Judge, Small Cause Court, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 8th February 1884, No. 106.

I have the honor to forward the accompanying printed form of application for pension on behalf of Cornelius Carmody, late bailiff of this court, duly filled up, together with his service book and his last pay certificate.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 27th March 1884, No. A.D.J.-512.

Submitted to Government. The applicant was employed as serjeant of the general market police from 4th September 1868 to 6th February 1870 ; while thus employed his pay up to January 1869 was disbursed by the Madras municipality, and the pay from February 1869, though drawn in the monthly pay bills of the Police department, was afterwards recovered from the municipality. The applicant's transfer from service under Government to service under the municipality does not appear to have been formally sanctioned by Government. On being required to justify the transfer in the absence of any sanction of Government, the Commissioner of Police, in his letter, No. 1441, dated 18th March 1884, states that though the cost of the general market establishment was defrayed by the municipality, the men employed in it still formed a part of the police force. Ordinarily service under a municipality does not count for pension. It now rests with Government to decide whether the applicant's service paid from municipal funds should be rejected as non-qualifying without affecting his title to count the previous service towards pension, or whether it should be admitted as service qualifying for pension from the municipal funds as was done in the case of Pundi Parthasaradhi Aiyangar, disposed of in G.O., No. 15, dated 18th January 1879, Pension department. In the former case the total period of qualifying service would amount to 17 years 11 months and 16 days, while in the latter case it would amount to 19 years 3 months and 29 days, entitling the applicant in either case to a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 33-5-4 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, under sections 110, 113 (b), and 115 of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition). But if service under the municipality is allowed to count, the applicant having been transferred by the order of the head of his department, the pension will have to be borne by both general revenues and municipal funds according to the rule of proportions.

2. In accordance with rule 4, under section 134, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 69 of the code.

ENCLOSURE.

From Lieutenant-Colonel H. W. H. COX, Acting Commissioner of Police, Madras, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 18th March 1884, No. 1441.

In reply to your letter, No. I.A.E.-382, dated 15th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the transfer of Serjeant Carmody to the General Market Police was not sanctioned by Government, and I submit that such sanction was not necessary.

2. It appears from paragraph 3 of G.O., dated 4th February 1867, No. 181, Judicial, that although the cost of the general market establishment and of the water cistern guard was defrayed by the Municipality and Public Works department respectively, the men employed on these duties continued to form part of the police force.

3. It is true that up to and including January 1869 the pay of these men was not drawn in the police pay bills, but this was an error, which was rectified by the Assistant Inspector-General on the matter coming to his notice, owing to the unexplained non-appearance in the pay bills for November 1868 of the name of a constable who had been transferred to the water cistern guard in that month. After February 1869 the pay of the men employed in the market establishment and water cistern guard was entered in the pay bills, but the amount was deducted from the total of form D.

No. 35.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to his letter to the Accountant-General, dated 18th March 1884, No. 1441, the Commissioner of Police is requested to quote any previous cases in which service on the general market establishment has been treated as municipal service, or in which the Madras municipality has been required to contribute proportionately towards the pension of members of the police force who had served on that establishment.

(By Order.)

OOTACAMUND,
19*th May* 1884.

(Signed) E. S. LAFFAN,

To the Commissioner of Police.

From Lieutenant-Colonel H. W. H. COX, Acting Commissioner of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 21st May 1884, No. 32.

In reply to your memorandum, No. 35, dated 19th instant, Pension department, I have the honor to inform you that in no previous case has service (by police officers) in the general market establishment been treated as municipal service, and that the Madras municipality has never been required to contribute proportionately towards the pension of police officers so employed.

2. The police market establishment was withdrawn on 18th June 1871 in accordance with G.O., dated 29th May 1871, No. 721, Public department, and it was not until after February 1873 * that an additional charge on account of pension was made for police officers supplied to private individuals or firms. It was probably for this reason that, although the municipality paid the salaries of the police market establishment, they were not required to make any contribution on account of the pensions of the men employed on it.

* G.O., 10th February 1873, No. 195, Financial department.

ORDER—dated 12th June 1884, No. 503, Pension.

Under sections 110, 113 (b), and 115 of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. Cornelius Carmody, late bailiff, Madras Small Cause Court, a superannuation pension of Rs. (33-5-4) thirty-three, annas five and pies four per mensem, payable in Madras from 1st February 1884, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 19 years 3 months and 29 days.

2. It is observed that under section 141 (b), Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the applicant's service on the general market establishment qualifies for pension from the general revenues.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No $\frac{AD?}{205}$ dated 4th March 1884 (herewith returned with its enclosure) I have the honor to inform you that Mr Cornelius Carmody was transferred from General Police to General Market Police on 1st September 1868 and remained there up to the date of his resignation. His pay for 5 months while in the Market Police viz from September 1868 to January 1869 was not drawn in the monthly Pay Bills Form D of the Force but was recovered from the Municipality and paid to him. From February 1869 his

Official Memo: to the Commissioner of Police dated 19th May 84 No. 35

From the Commissioner of Police Madras dated 21st May 84 No. 32

It is submitted that the view taken by the Accountant-General is wrong and that the Govt. are not shut up to the two alternatives, either to reject the memorialist's service on the General market establishment as non-qualifying, or to charge the Madras Municipality with a share of the pension proportionate to the applicant's service on that establishment. Reference is solicited to s. 141 of the Code. The general market establishment was not "wholly supported by, and under the control of, the Municipality," but was part of the general Police Force and under the orders of the Commissr., though paid for by the Muny.
