I do not know the date of my birth. I was born in Tellicherry, which I left in 1837 to go to the school at Sivandrum. To the best of my belief, I was then 13 years old. A few years back, I endeavoured to get a copy of my Baptismal Certificate from the Church at Tellicherry, but I learnt that the old Registers were not forthcoming.

On the promotion of Mr J. F. Fernandez to the post of Deputy Collector 4 th Class he was succeeded by Mr May as Head Clerk, English Correspondence Department. He has the character of being a most honest & straight forward man, & tho' rather timid, I believe he quite deserved the opinion that former officials have held of him. He has an excellent knowledge of English, drafts letters well, and is generally a hard working & painstaking man.		28 th Feb 1857	Promotion
