PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following

Petition from P. Subachary of 8 January 1884.
Letter from the Accountant General, Madras,
of 4 April 1884 No. 1079.

Order thereon of 5 May 1884, No. 1130 inis: -

Petitioner's request is inadmissible.
The period during which the petitioner
was in receipt of pension will, as regards the calculation of average emoluments for pension purposes be left out of account, as period of non employment, an equal
period of service preceding that date, being taken into calculation instead.
