Reply to the Accountant General's objection dated 23rd April 1884. No A. D. K. / 11.

Query 10. — Though the Medical certificate is dated 13th November 1883, it was received only on the 19th Idem — by the Treasury Deputy Collector in charge of the District Press who obtained the orders of the Collector Mr. Leman and dispensed with the services of the applicant from the 24th November 1883. This certificate was countersigned by the District Medical Officer only on the 11th February 1884.—

Query 14. The applicant is, under the Section quoted, entitled for his completed Superior Service of 5 years to a gratuity of only Rs 75 equal to 5 months pay at Rs 15. The entry of Rs 77-14-5 instead, which is the pay for 6 months calculated on the average emoluments for 5 years drawn by the applicant, was an error. It has been rectified.—

Query 23. The applicant, on the abolition of his office on 1st Augt 1874, did not apply for any gratuity because he was in hopes that he would be re-employed in the Service at no distant date, as would be seen, as a matter of fact, from his re-employment as acting attender on 15th September 1874 subsequently i.e. within a month and a half from the date of abolition and as permanent Compositor on Rs 12 on 11th January 1875.—

Query 33. Allowances during the absence of the applicant on sick leave were first drawn up to 13th April 1881, but the allowance for 1 day, vizt the 13th April 1881 was retrenched* and recovered. The date of termination of the leave was entered in the application with reference to the bill in which the allowances were originally drawn in ignorance of the subsequent retrenchment and recovery of the allowance for the 13th. The necessary correction has now been made in the application

× Accountant Generals' Result Statement No $\frac{\text{i. A. Z.}}{167}$ date 17 June 1881—

Queries 34 & 36. The Medical officer's memo of detailed reasons for invaliding the applicant is herewith sent. also a fresh Medical certificate in the proper form as requested— The applicant has been suffering from mental derangement for over 3 years and has not recovered from it yet. He is in consequence unfit for his duty of Compositor or for any other duty in the public service

Query 35. It is seen from the office copies of Pay bills in this office that the applicant was promoted to the post of Compositor on Rs 10 from 1st Not 10th June 1865. The entry "1st January" is a mistake— It has been corrected under my initials

The Service of the applicant as Apprentice from 1st August 1863 to 31st December 1864 is not qualifying under the Section quoted and has been so shown now.-

Query 37.- It appears from the records in this office that the applicants pay was Rs 20 from 18th December 1879 to 6th april 1880, and that pay was drawn for him for December 1879 and January and February 1880 first in regular Pay bills as Compositor on Rs 15 and subsequently the difference between that pay and Rs 20 on a Supplemental bill.- The English Record Keeper who verified the service of the applicant, referred to the original pay bills only and not to the supplemental ones. Hence the discrepancy noticed. The necessary correction has been made under my initials.-

The reason of the applicants degradation on 7th April/80 from Rs 20 to Rs 15 is given in the 3rd page of the application.-
