PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read again Mis: G. dated 6th December 1883, no: 4856, referring to the Accountant General for report, Board's Proceedings, dated 27th November 1883,
 Mis: no: 9882, on letter from the Collec.
 - for of Vellore, dated 10th November 1883, no: 5777.

The Accountant General Fort
 Saint George, having in his L^d ^{a.D.K.} 106, dated 24th September 1883, taken objection to passing the pension application of G. Raman
 - John Vaidu, late 2^d Clerk Sub Collector office, Ongole, I have the honor to place the merits of the case before the Board for their favorable consideration.

2. The History of the applicant's services is as follows: -

3. He first entered the service on 9th June 1858 in the office of the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, Godavery Range and was taken on in the permanent permanent establishment of that office on 1st October 1858. He was appointed as 2^d Clerk, Sub Collector's Office, Ongole, on 1st January 1864.

4. He was deputed as Head Accountant, Chundi Estate from 25th September 1876 to 10th February 1879, under the Orders of Government in their Revenue Department, no: 755, dated 17th May 1878. He paid no pensionary contribution to Government during this period.

5. He was once again deputed as Derram, Chundi Estate, from 11th May 1880, to 10th May 1881. Contribution for this period was duly recovered from him.

x Non qualifying being the period of service prior to obtaining a permanent footing - 0-3-22

6. His total services amount to 25 years and 28 days of which, a period of 4 years of leaves - 1-3-1 and 20 days is rendered non-qualifying as per particulars noted in the margin

Do on account of suspension while in the Settlement Deptt. (cause not known) 0-1-11

7. His qualifying service, therefore amounts to 21 years and 8 days entitling him to a pension of one third of his average emoluments under Section (109) Clause (b) of the Civil Pension Code.

Do on account of his employ-ment at Chundi, no contribution having been paid for the period 2-4-16

4-0-20

8. But the Accountant General holds that the period of his deputation to Chundi from 25th September 1876 to 10th February 1879, during which, the applicant has paid no pensionary contribution, is to be considered as period after resignation, entailing a forfeiture of all his past services amounting to 17 years - 7 months and 17 days qualifying service.

9. If this principle be adopted, the applicant can only count his service from 11th February 1879 - the date of his re-joining his appointment in the Sub Division office, which amounts to 4 years, 4 months and 28 days, of which 1 year and 4 days having been rendered non-qualifying on account of leaves, a period of 3 years 4 months and 21 days is all that is left to him to count towards pension. He will thus be entitled to a gratuity of a little over 3 months' salary or Rs 105.

10. On a reference from this office, the applicant Ramaswami Naidu states, states, in his arzi, dated 22nd August 1883, that the period for which he paid no pensionary contribution was the time of the recent terrible famine, and that, being a man of a large family with very limited means, he was utterly unable to spare any portion of his salary towards contributing to government for pension, nor is he able to pay the amount now.

11. In deserving instances, the Govt. may condone breaks in the services of officers under section 98 of the Civil Pension Code, and I trust that this indulgence may be extended to the case in question, the effect of which will be the authority of the refection of the period under dispute (i.e. 2 years, 4 months and 16 days) from the total services of the applicant so as not to cause a forfeiture of his past services by treating it as leave without allowances or in any manner which may bring about the end in view, and that the Board will be pleased to recommend the proposition for the favorable favorable consideration of Government.

Resolution.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

Read also letter from the Accountant General, dated 18th December 1883, no. J.A.R. 302.

With reference to your endorsement no. 4856, dated the 6th December 1883, referring to me for report, Board's Proceedings, no. 9882, dated the 27th November last, I have the honor to state that it appears that G. Kamenpala Nayudu, late 2^d Clerk, Sub Collector's office, Ellore, was deputed as Head Accountant of the Chundi Estate from 25th September 1876, to 10th February 1879, under G.O. no. 755, dated 17th May 1878, Revenue Department, and that during this period of deputation he knowingly and wilfully omitted to make to Government the contribution required to entitle him to pension.

2. The Collector now recommends on his behalf that this period may be regarded as leave without allowances or that it may be condoned or otherwise dealt with, so that it may not operate as a bar to applicant's counting his previous service. The applicant while employed as Head accountant, drew pay from the Chundi Estate at Rs 50. --- per mensem, and assuming this to be his gross pay, the contribution on account of pension alone, that should have been recovered from him from 25th September 1876 to 10th February 1879 at Rs 6. --- per month, is Rs 171-5-5, exclusive of interest, and it is open to Government to permit the applicant to pay now, with such interest as it may deem proper, the contribution that he should have paid while in foreign service, and to allow him to count this foreign service and all previous service as service counting for pension.

3. The enclosures to your endorsement under reply are herewith returned.

Order thereon 10th January 1881 No. 56.

The Government will be prepared to condone the break caused by the employment of the clerk on foreign service between September 1876 and

February

February 1879, if he pays up the amount of the pensionary contribution without interest.
