1st June to 2nd September 1878.
1st June to 31st August 1882.
1st June to 13th August 1883.

Submitted to Government. It will be seen from the history of service, as recorded in the second page of the application, that the applicant was kept out of employ on 3 different occasions, as particularized in the margin, on account of the monsoons. The Port officer at Calicut states that the applicant's appointment is not of the character prescribed in rule 1, section 70, Civil Pension Code. The Master Attendant recommends that the breaks should be condoned under the exception in c, section 96, of the Civil Pension Code. There is no rule in the code under which breaks of the kind referred to above can be condoned. Should Government, however, under the explanation furnished above, be pleased to accept the Master Attendant's recommendation, qualifying service in inferior grades will be duly proved for 6 years and 7 months, and that a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 36, equal to 3 months' pay, will be admissible under sections 100 and 117 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, and the gratuity will be debitable to Port funds—vide exception under section 81 of the code.

2. The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 of section 100 are given by the Master Attendant in his reply to this office reference, No. A.D.K.-128, dated 23rd October 1883.

3. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 11180 dated the 15th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the Port officer, Calicut, in his letter to your address No. 1048 dated the 7th idem, observes that the appointment held by the applicant Koravan is not of the character prescribed in rule 1 Section 70 of the Civil Pension Code. The applicant was, however, kept without employment on account of the monsoons from 1 June to 2nd September 1878, 1 June to 31 August 1882 and from 1st June to 15th August 1883. I have the honor to enquire therefore how the above breaks are to be regarded for the purpose of calculating the total period of Service for gratuity whether they are to be treated as interruptions vitiating the applicants' past Services or as interruptions reconcileable under any of the exceptions mentioned in Section 96 of the Civil Pension Code.

Please furnish me with a Copy of G. O. No 3209 W dated 6th December 1882 P. W. Department quoted in Your letter No 9645 dated the 2nd Ultimo.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No 3209 W, Public Works Department, dated December 6th 1882, I have the honor to report that the pier at Calicut having been transferred to the Pier and Warehouse Company at that port, the establishment has been dispensed with. There are only two men with claims for gratuity so named S. Gomes, late pier peon, and Horaven, late Pier lascar, and I beg to submit the accompanying applications for the same. It will be seen that Gomes is recommended for Rupees (32) thirty two gratuity, and so Horaven for Rupees (28-12-9) twenty eight, annas twelve, and pies nine, and although their their character was not all that could have been desired, the Port officer, Calicut, supports their claims. I would therefore suggest that sanction be granted, the payments being debited to the Port Fund.

-- The Accountant General, Madras dated 10th December/83.

FOR ORDERS.

The Accountant Genl. points out that the applicant, who was pier lascar at Calicut was kept out of employ on account of the monsoon in 1878 for 3 mos & 2 days in 1882 for 2 mos & in 1883 for 2 mos 13 days. The port officer says that the post does not fall within sub 1 sec. 70. which declares establishments, the duties of which are limited to certain fixed periods in each year to be not temporary. The breaks are therefore interruptions of service. But the Master Attendant suggests that they be condoned under sec. 98 Exception c. as periods of suspension immediately followed by reinstatement.

The gratuity earned on the supposition that the breaks are condoned is Rs. 36 payable from Port Funds, a local fund. Consequently the Local Govt. have under s. 98 an unlimited power of condonation. As the Master Att. says, "it will be very hard to deprive him of service for the breaks which were not owing to any fault on his part." Are the breaks to be condoned?

The Port Officer gives no reasons for his opinion & it appears that rule 1, sec 70 clearly applies. If so, no condonation is necessary. It appears that previously to 1878 the men drew their pay during the monsoon though they did no work, & monsoon service is counted.

I submit that the Port Officer is wrong & that the gratuity should be sanctioned with reference to sec 70, & without condonation of breaks.

H.S.

My copy of the Financial Code has gone to the office for correction so I am unable to refer to it. So long as the poor wretch gets his gratuity I don't suppose he will care much under what section the pittance is doled out to him.
