No 306

1887

District Munsif's Court Chingleput

16th June 1884.

From

The District Munsif

of Chinglepat.

To,

The Accountant General

Madras.

Sir

I beg to state that your letter No

A.D.K/17 dated 3d May last, addressed to the District Judge of Chinglepat, in the matter of the application for the gratuity claimed by Bellamconda Ramasamy Naidu a late Peon of this Court, was sent to me (on the re-opening of my Court) by the Serishtadar of the District Court in order to the explanations therein called for being submitted to you direct, because the District Judge is absent from the Station, the recess of his Court not having as yet terminated. I beg therefore to submit the following.

2. N.o 5— From the Office copy of the pay bill for March 1883 it is clear that the date of the termination of the Applicant's service is 12.th March 1883. The date "10.th March" which had been wrongly inserted in the service book was copied in the Application. The necessary corrections have now been made in the service book and the application.

3. N.o 8— This Court has only two 'peons' (besides process-servers), and the Applicant and one Royalu Naidu were such peons in 1876 and 1879.

4. N.o 9— The Applicant retired during the time of my predecessor. The main cause for the delay in submitting the application was the applicant's absence from Chingleput for long intervals, and the necessity for searching for the necessary records for reference in its preparation.

5. N.o 13— I beg to state that in his affidavit of the 7.th March 1884 (herewith forwarded) the applicant says that the gratuity referred to was drawn in 1860 or 1861. In the letter sent to me by the Serishtadar of the District Court in reply to my letter asking that Court for a copy of the G. O. under which the said gratuity was drawn, he informs me that the order is not to be found among the records of the District Court, & that the G.O. abolishing the late Principal Sudr Amins (Court where in the applicant had been employed) is dated the 19th July 1861 & its No. is 927.

6. No. 15 & 21— From the records since found out the service claimed has been satisfactorily verified and the 10th Column on page 2 of the application accordingly altered. Therefore no evidence is transmitted as required in No. 15.

7. No. 18— In the applicant's affidavit (herewith forwarded with a translation)

he states that the year 'Subhanu' given in Column 6 of the 1st page of the service book is a wrong entry, and that he was born in the year Iswara (or 1817-18). The service book is accordingly altered.

No. 25— As the provisions in this respect of the Civil Pension Code, considered together, appeared to authorize calculation of the gratuity upon the average emoluments, such calculation was made. The applicant drew a monthly salary of Rupees 7, only for 3 years eleven months & eleven days (including private affairs leave of 27 days). his previous pay being at the rate of Rupees 5 per mensem. His gratuity, if calculated upon the pay which the applicant last drew, would amount to Rupees 35, instead of Rupees 32-10-6 laid down in the application.

The other requisitions made in the letter under reply, have been complied with.

The application and the papers therewith connected are herewith forwarded as per list annexed.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant.

Affidavit of Peon Ramasamy Naidoo on Solemn Affirmation.

I cannot recollect whether I took leave ~~not~~ on forfeiture of pay in the years 1865, 66, 67, 73, 74 and 1875. I was born in the year Eswara. I cannot remember the month. The entry made in my Service Book to the effect that I was born in Subanu was not written on my dictation. The Court itself entered it. The year "Subanu" is a mistake. My parents & my elders informed me that I was born in the year Eswara.

I heard this affidavit read to me. It is correct.
