Honored Sir

With reference to the Accountant General's objection memo dated the 29th April last No A D K which was forwarded ¹⁴ to me by the District Court, I beg to submit Deon's lists of the Process Service Establishment from 1875 to 1879.

I beg to transmit herewith the deposition on oath taken me from by Ibrahim Kha. No Contemporary evidence is forthcoming in support of the applicants services for July 1875

The pay bills or acquittance rolls for July 1875 are missing and the evidence on oath of Abrahamkha shows that he did not take leave of any kind during that month.
I therefore think on the evidence that the one month's service may be taken as verified.
Even supposing that the peon obtained leave of absence during the above one month it would not disentitle him to the gratuity applied for.

The applicant had been a process peon of this Court before 20 January 1871. It appears that in 1863 November he was transferred to this Court from the process Service Establishment of the District Court where he might have been entertained as a peon before 1863.

In 1873 the office of a Process Server became a salaried one Under these circumstances I thought that the proviso to Section III would not strictly apply to the case of Abrahamkha and I recommended him for four months pay.

Ibram Khan, late process server, District Municipal Court, Vizagapatnam, father's name, Adham Khan, Caste, Mahomedan, Age 55 years. Village Vizagapatnam. Deposition given on oath.

I was a batta head of the District Municipal Court of Vizagapatnam from 1863 to 1873.
From September 1873, I was made a permanent process server on pay under Government and in Government service up to 10th March 1884. At the time I served, I never obtained leave of any kind nor was I ever suspended. I was therefore in service in the month of July 1875 but was not on leave. Previous to the year 1863, from the time I was ^{not} 25 years old, I used to be batta head in the Principal Sadar Ameer's Court, Vizapatnam.
