1. Explanation why the applicant was retained in service up to 31st December 1883 before the medical certificate declaring him to be unfit for further service was dated the 20th December 1883.

2. Information as to whether the Ecobank.

ment of the Additional Resident. An appeal sent of course in which the applicant was at first embodied from 1st October 1893 to the 31st May 1894 and permanent or temporary. If it was a temporary appointment, the administration of the service provided, in it towards pensions should be justified with reference to the rules in the Pension Code.

3. It has more personal marks to facilitate identification.

4. Recommendation of a Medical Certificate in London given and described under section 174 of the Civil Evidence Code 5th Edition, in favor of the Medical Surgeons' Letter No 534, dated 20th December 1888. In obtaining the Medical Certificate, indeed, the attention of the Medical Officer should be called to part 2 to the above doc.

5. Information as to whether the applicant's services were verified from Ray Bills as stated in the 2nd page of the application or from the Service Reports as mentioned elsewhere to be on the 3d page of the application. If they were verified from the Service Reports, please cause the Service report to be verified from such records as Ray bills or a questionnaire bills and report the result of this office.

The applicant was retained in service up to 31st December 1883 because he appeared and presented his application for gratuity on that date but no pay was granted to him long before that date, he having been on leave without allowances for more than 2 years. In the meanwhile he applied for an extension of leave and was sent to the medical officer for his opinion who examined the applicant and sent his letter dated 20th December 1883 but the applicant stayed away in his house without accompanying the letter and did not return till 31st December 1883 the day on which he applied for gratuity.

I have no means of knowing as to whether the Establishment of the Additional Resident Munniff's Court of Simms's post-ponement or transferring but from the Proceedings of Government of Madras dated 25th January 1875 no 168 it appears that the said Court was located as one of the 11 permanent Courts in the Madras Presidency. Vide also Notification of the High Court of Madras published in the Fort St. George Gazette dated 29th April 1879 Part II. Sec. 506. The Service of the Appellate Courts from functions with Rule 2. Sec. 4 of the Civil Procedure Code.

The applicant had a scar in the shin Elephantiasis legs and is attached with Leprosy. He had no other marks of scabidity him.

Certificate in proper form is now submitted and it is marked III X

The services were already provided from Bay Mills and Dequitanne Mills as stated in the 2nd part of the application.

The humble petition of Perumal Batra Rem No 4 of this Court.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That the petitioner falling sick first took leave for a short time and finding himself not perfectly cured got an extension of leave for 2 years from 1st October 1881, but again finding himself not better and consequently applying for a further extension of 6 months he was ordered to be sent to the Doctor for examination by the District Court, and as the Zillah Surgeon reported to this Court by his letter dated 20th December 1883 that he, the petitioner, was no longer fit for work he begs to tender this his resignation of his appointment and requests that he may be recommended for either pension or gratuity to which ever he may be entitled to according to the rules for the service rendered by him as per his Service Report.
