Confidential report on Salug Pion Shaik Surva r. No 19.

I this day carefully examined Salug Pion Shaik Surva r No 19. and find him prematurely worn out and debilitated his eye sight is much impaired from injury to the right eye and cataract in the left. his age is by his own statement 49 years but looks fully 55 years from the above condition.

I consider Shaik Surva r to be fit for the duties of a Salug Pion and accordingly grant him the usual disqualification certificate

5. Any other remarks, Invalided: Vide medical Certificate attached. The applicant was permitted by the officers & assistants' Collection to remain in service some time after the Certificate. Such irregularities will be guarded against in future. Applicants shortly before his retirement was subpoenaed by the dead Assistants Collector for neglect of duty with orders to send him to the Zillah Surgeon on his restoration in order to his fitness for further service being certified. The Zillah Surgeon pronouncing him unfit. Mr. Fiddian ordered him to go from the 1st August last. Against this order the individual appealed to the collector who declined (22-11-83) to interfere. Whereupon Applicant put in an application received in the office 4th March 1884 for what pension or gratuity due to him. Delay from them what now is due to the time occurred forgetting the necessary papers were in the hands of the collector and for forwarding to the office generally. b) The whole Service has been established by records.
