5TH AUGUST 1884, No. 719, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the District Judge, Tinnevely, dated 17th March 1884, No. 173.

Certificate and report from W. T. PIERCY, Esq., Assistant Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 14th July 1884, No. A.D.J.-168.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 15 years and 14 days, and that a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 5-4-2 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition). The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the District Judge's letter, No. 173, dated 17th March 1884, that the applicant died on 31st October 1883. The arrears of any pension that may be sanctioned to him up to the date of his death should be made payable to his legal heirs mentioned in the District Munsif's letter, No. 66, dated 24th June 1884.

2. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the District Munsif in his letter, dated 22nd January 1884.

3. In accordance with rule 4, under section 134, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 69 of the code.

ORDER—dated 5th August 1884, No. 719, Pension.

Under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Palamcottah Ramalingam Pillai, late 3rd clerk in the District Munsif's Court, Srivaikuntham, a superannuation pension of Rs. (5-4-0) five and annas four per mensem, payable at Tinnevely from 28th May 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 15 years and 14 days.

2. As the applicant is reported to have died on the 31st October 1883, the arrears of pension due will, under section 177, rule 2 of the above code, be disbursed to his legal heirs Manikkavasagam Pillai and Ponnusami Pillai.

3. The delay in submission of this application is highly unsatisfactory. The man retired on 27th May 1883, but no application on his behalf was forwarded until October.

Sir,
In reply to the letter of the Accountant General. No. S.D.K. 9 of the 9th April last, received during the vacation of my court, I beg to submit the following explanation.

The late 3rd clerk Ramalingam Pillai retired from the service at his own option, having attained the age of 59 years, under clause 9 Section 110 of the Pension Code - 6th Edition. He is entitled to Superannuation Pension and not to invalid Pension as has been been incorrectly stated in my former application.

(1) The records to show past services from 1856 to 1879 have been destroyed. The Ambasamudram Munsif in whose court the retired clerk was employed from 1856 to 1871 has so stated. The acquittance roll &c in this court from 1871 to 1879 have not been preserved. The applicant continued to be ill after he ceased to do work and died subsequently and it had not been possible to obtain an affidavit from him during his life-time. Further my first impression was that the man was entitled to a gratuity and that the service particulars given in the Service Register were enough. It was

was only after the applicant's death and on reference to papers produced by his Son I changed my view (vide my letter of 22nd January 1884).

(2) The names of the heirs of the deceased are

- (a) Manikkavasagam Pillai and
- (b) Ponnusami Pillai.

residing in Palancottah in Tinnevely District.

(3) The leave enjoyed by the applicant on the last 3 occasions was on forfeiture of full pay.

The service of the applicant from 5th November 1856 to 2nd July 1871 is entered as directed in the Service book.

On the affidavit of a contemporary clerk, the applicant was was entered to have been promoted to 11 Rupees pay on 3rd January (June-Dec.) 1866. Now following the entry in the records in the Accountant General's office, the date has been altered into 27th February 1867. The later date does not interfere with the pension proposed and it is not necessary to enquire how the contemporary clerk fell into mistake.

The periods of absence now brought to light have been entered in their proper places and brought to reckoning.

I beg to add that a fresh application embodying the variations made is herewith submitted

I beg to remain,

Sir,

I beg to submit an application for pension on behalf of Pannalugam Pillai the late 3rd Clerk of this Court.

In October 1883 an application for gratuity was submitted in the man's behalf. The same was returned by the District Court with its memorandum No 135 dated the 5th ultimo, for certain corrections and further information. The memorandum was received by me on the 10th idem, and in the course of attending to the directions therein contained, a letter was received from the Clerk's son intimating his father's death and his possession of testimonials and sundries of appointments, that had been granted to the deceased. He saw that put in personal appearance immediately after, produced 5 testimonials and two sundries

Enclosures 13

Forwarding the late 3rd Clerk's Pension application with 13 enclosures

On perusal thereof I found that the Clerk had entered a pensionable grade of appointment (and this by the way he was described in the testimonials) some years prior to the period whence his service was reckoned in the last application. It has not been possible to ascertain on what particular date the superior service commenced. A contemporary servant of the deceased is now the 5th Clerk under me. In the latter's sworn affidavit, I find that on 3rd January 1866 he joined the Subasamudram Munniff Court as 9th Clerk and that he then found Ramalingam Pillai holding the substantive appointment of 4th Clerk in the same Court, which carried with it the pay of Rs 11 per mensem. There is a testimonial of Ramalingam Pillai dated 29th January 1865 pointing to his position in the office as that of the 5th Clerk. His promotion as 4th Clerk must have been within the twelve months intervening and as the rate of pension is not affected from whence the starting point is made, there is no harm in calculating the service from the particular date, viz 5th Clerk speaks to Court - 3 January 1866.

29
The service of Ramalingam Pillai as at present ascertained by the records and evidence now before me is admissible. He having died on 31st October last he would be entitled to receive any pension that might be sanctioned from 28th May 1883 up to his death.

The corrections pointed out in the District Court Memo of the 5th December have, so far as necessary, been made in the present application.

In conclusion I beg to express regret, not only for the delay that has occurred in the disposal of this case, but also for the application once submitted having had to be superseded by another opposed to the first. If the Service Register prepared in 1873 had contained the information required by the Pension Code, the error in question could have been avoided. The Subasamudram Munniff with whom I placed myself in communication was not able to give the history of the man's service beyond 1868. My impression therefore was that it would be hopeless to try to trace it in any
