SIR,

In forwarding herewith the applications for gratuity on behalf of the individuals named in the margin, I have the honor to state that in the case of Varre Satappa, the former the Munsiff by mistake failed to get him examined by a Medical Officer as required by the Rules before permitting him to retire, but this omission has been subsequently supplied under Section 128 of the Pension Code, by requiring the individual to appear before the Zillah Surgeon at Rajahmundry, whose certificate is annexed to the application.

The delay in the submission of this application and that of Kotee Bapannah is due to the defective information with which the applications were first received in this Court and the numerous references thereby necessitated that have had to be made to the Courts concerned for obtaining adequate and correct information.
