Memorial from Mr. B. J. Taylor, dated 10th May 1884.
Letter to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated 6th January 1884, No. 495.

From J. F. FINLAY, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Simla, 9th July 1884, No. 2099.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 495, dated 6th June 1884, forwarding an appeal from Mr. B. J. Taylor, late Assistant in the office of the Inspector-General of Jails, against the orders of the Government of Madras refusing to grant him a pension equal to half his average emoluments in lieu of the pension of one-third average emoluments to which he has been already admitted under rules. Mr.
Taylor prays that the service rendered by him before the age of 22 years may be allowed to count towards pension with a view to render admissible the increased pension, or, in the event of this not being sanctioned, that he may be granted a pension proportionate to his service of 23 years.

2. In reply, I am to say that both these claims of the petitioner are inadmissible under the rules, and that His Excellency the Governor-General in Council sees no sufficient reasons to interfere with the orders against which Mr. Taylor appeals. I am to request that he may be informed accordingly.

ORDER—dated 5th August 1884, No. 733, Pension.

Copy of the foregoing letter from the Government of India will be forwarded to the Inspector-General of Jails for communication to Mr. B. J. Taylor.
