His Excellency the Right Honorable Mount Stuart Cliphinstone Grant Duff the Governor of Madras.

The most humble petition of A. Sreenivasa moodaly, late Dalaya Chinglepet collector's office at Saidapett

Most humbly sheweth.

That the petitioner most humbly begs to state that, the Government have passed the order No 871 of 26th September 1883, Pension Department, to grant the petitioner a gratuity of Rs 40- for his service.
That on the 10th November 1883, the petitioner sent in a petition to Your Excellency, praying for an order to be passed on cancelment of the said G.O, to grant him a pension which he is entitled for, on the grounds therein mentioned; but, on referring that petition to the collector of this District for report, the collector Mr J. F. Price, owing to his illfeeling towards the petitioner, reported wrongfully (vide his letter No 721 of 21st December 1883); and in consequence the Ag Under Secretary has passed the order No 77 of 26th January 1884, directing that the petitioner's request is inadmissible.

Therefore the petitioner most humbly prays that an order will be passed to favor the petition er with a copy of the collector's letter (No 721 of 21st December 1883) abovesaid so as the petitioner may bring to the notice of the Government, the points which the collector has stated wrongfully.
