28TH JANUARY 1884, No. 81, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, dated 14th December 1883, No. 14007.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 12th January 1884, No. A.D.J.-388.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 12 years 11 months and 22 days, and that a superannuation gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 720, equal to 12 months' pay, is admissible under sections 106 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition).

2. It will be seen from the history of service and from the accompanying correspondence that the applicant was dismissed from the public service on 12th November 1868 on the ground that he connived at certain salt thefts, and that he was in consequence without employment from 11th November 1868 to 12th September 1869. He appealed against the dismissal to the Board of Revenue, who, however, rejected the appeal, but observed "that inasmuch as no dishonesty on the part of Ghulam Hyder was proved, they would not object to the Collector's employing him when an opportunity occurred in some position of less trust and responsibility." According to this decision the applicant was provided with an acting appointment at first and then on 15th July 1870 he was transferred to a permanent post.

3. It will be seen from the above facts that there was an interval of 1 year 8 months and 4 days between the date of removal from the service and the date of re-employment in a pensionable grade, and this interruption entails forfeiture of past service and also deprives the applicant of his claim to pension, which he would otherwise be entitled to—vide section 97 of the code.

4. Should Government, however, in consideration of this hardship, and upon such conditions as they may deem proper to impose, be pleased to condone the interruption under the powers vested in them by section 98 (b) of the code, as they did in the case of Ramachendra Row, disposed of in G.O., No. 809, dated the 2nd September 1882, the applicant's qualifying service would amount to 29 years 9 months and 2 days, entitling him to a superannuation pension, not exceeding Rs. 26-9-4 per mensem, equal to half-average emoluments, under sections 106, 109 (c) and 111 of the Civil Pension Code.

5. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

Petition from Ghulam Hyder, dated 15th January 1884.

ORDER—dated 28th January 1884, No. 81, Pension.

Under sections 106, 109 (c) and 111 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to M. Ghulam Hyder, late sub-inspector, second grade, Covelong circle, Chingleput division, a superannuation pension of Rs. (26-9-4) twenty-six, Annas nine, and Pies four per mensem, payable at Cuddalore from 1st November 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 29 years 9 months and 2 days.

2. A break in the applicant's service of 1 year 8 months and 4 days, from 11th September 1868 to 15th July 1870, has been condoned under section 98 (b) of the above code.

To The Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Sir,

With reference to the Board's Proceedings dated 10th instant. This No. 1875. reference to the order of Govt. dated 26th 11th 1875. No. 162 for my report. I have the honour to refer the Board to their Proceedings dated 8th May + 19th June Instant. Nos. 2788 + 5772 respectively. Communicating the sanction of Govt. Recording in their Proceedings notes dated 10th May 1872. The may be from which the Board will see that the employment of Ghulam Hyder Sahib as Dy. Sub Magistrate was not without sanction. In their No. of 14th May 1872. This No. 5599 the Board recommended Govt. that in virtue of his long experience in the Salt and Lager Department he should be exempted from further examination. The Govt. in their order of 6th September 1872 No. 17 sanctioned his re-employment so far as the Land Revenue was concerned. As it was that Dept. he was then appointed. The Salt Dept. stands in great need at present of experienced officers and I therefore trust that the Govt. who has already relaxed the rules in favour of this servant of 22 years' standing to admit of his holding appointments in the Judicial & Customs Department will be pleased to extend PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 21st September 1865.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 15th September 1865, No. 2,217,
Revenue Department :—

ABSTRACT.—Permitting Govinda Row, Tahsildar of Cuddalore, in the South Arcot District, to retain office to the end of the current month, to allow time for sending his pension application to Government, and stating that the Collector's explanation of the delay in reporting a certain Yeomiah case, is not satisfactory.

Communicated to the Acting Collector, who will take care that Govinda Row's application for a pension, with the necessary medical certificate, is submitted to Government in due time. He should also submit proposals for nominating a successor to Govinda Row.
