GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From J. A. DAVIES, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate side, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 27th June 1883, No. 1847.

With reference to the enclosed copy of a letter from the District Judge of Bellary, forwarding to the High Court your letter to him, No. A.D.K.-27, dated 15th May last,* wherein you require particulars to be given of the saving effected by the reduction of the 13 process servers recommended for compensation gratuities, I have the honor to inform you that, taking the whole Presidency, the recent general revision of the Process-service establishments, which has been submitted for the sanction of Government with my letter, No. 1819, dated the 24th instant (copy forwarded for your information), results in a saving of Rs. 35,208 per annum on the sanctioned cost of Rs. 6,36,420 though in the Bellary district itself the cost of the revised establishment slightly exceeds the sanctioned expenditure for that district, viz., Rs. 2,149 against Rs. 2,123.

* Herewith returned with its enclosures.

2. Of the 13 process servers, three are certified by the District Judge to be incapacitated for further service by reason of their age being above 60 years, and they may therefore be admitted to invalid gratuities. The amount of compensation gratuities to the remaining 10 men is, as set forth by the District Judge, Rs. 204, which may be met from the general savings to be effected by the revision as already stated.

ENCLOSURE.

2. Upon reference, the Acting Registrar of the High Court, Appellate side, in his letter, No. 1847, dated 27th June 1883, copy of which is enclosed, states that a scheme for the general revision of the Process-service establishments of the whole Presidency

Should Government be pleased to consider that the above explanation is satisfactory, they can grant the applicant a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 24, equal to four months' pay, under sections 104 and 121 (a) of the Civil Pension Code.

3. The attention of Government is respectfully invited to the circular by the Government of India, No. 1690, dated 22nd July 1878, printed as a foot-note to the word appointment in rule 6, section 104, of the code.
