Sir.

I have the honor to lay the following facts before you regarding the conduct of M. Raima-Sami Naider, an amin of my Court.

He was entrusted with a warrant, on the 16th ultimo, for the sale of the moucable property, then under attachment, of the Defendant, in execution of the decree in Small Cause Suit No 714 of 1882, on the file of this Court; and he was to return the Process on the 10th Idem, together with the sale proceeds. On his failing to do so my Sheristadar directed him, on the following day, in the presence of the Plaintiff's Vakil, K. Subba Row, to produce the amount in Court. He stated in reply that there was yet a portion to be collected, and would pay on the whole amount being realized.

The 12th 13th and 14th were holidays. On the 15th, the Amin did not come to Court, but sent a leave report, alleging that he was ill. The leave was refused and an amin and a peon were sent to bring him to Court with the money. He was not to be found. That same night at 8 P.M., my Sheristadar received information from some Amirs that Ramasami Naik told them he has lost the money by theft on the 11th. The Sheristadar thereupon submitted a report forthwith on the 16th. This was followed by the report of the amir himself which was to the effect that the money was stolen away on the evening of the 11th. I, immediately, took a deposition from him and, suspecting the truth of his statement, suspended him and at the same time directed him to produce the money. By small payments, made on different dates, until the 10th Instant, he has fully made it good.

I am not satisfied with his plea of loss of money, & that, is bona fide; since he did not bring the matter to the notice of my ~~Minister~~ ^{dar} or of the Police. The conduct of the amir is very reprehensible. When moveable property is sold, money is then and there collected and if the purchaser fails to pay immediately, the property is forthwith resold; and there is no reason to think that the amir did not collect the money.

immediately; and his statement that he did not collect the same, is false; and his excuse, for withholding immediate payment when asked by the Sheristadar to do so, also leads to the presumption, that he was not then in possession of the money. This conduct itself is sufficient to remove him from the list, and in addition to this, he has pleaded theft which I do not believe.
I think it is unsafe to retain him in office, any longer and therefore recommend that his removal may be sanctioned.

The deposition and the reports are herewith sent.

Proceedings of the District Court of South Arcot 16th March 1883.

Read letter, dated the 16th Ultimo N^o 64, from the Subordinate Judge, Cuddalore, stating that he has dismissed Mr. Ramasami Kank, an Amin of his Court, for the reasons stated therein subject to the approval of the District Court.

Read the papers forwarded with the above letter.

Read also the petition put in by the dismissed Amin.

I think the probability is that the Amin's account of the loss of the money by theft is true. Before the loss was known to the Sub Judge or Sheristadar, the Amin had given out that it was stolen.

That there is no invariable practice

17
of collecting money then and there from the purchasers of movable property, is clear from this case itself. Vide the sworn deposition of the Amin made on the 16th and his reply given on the 11th at Court to the Sheristadar: the latter making apparently no objection. Nor indeed is it imperative to collect the whole amount the same day on which the sale takes place (Vide Section 297 of the Code of Civil Procedure.)

The dismissal is not called for.
The Amin has been out of employ for 2 months from the 16th January. He will lose his salary for this period which will be a sufficient punishment for his carelessness.
