Collector of Tinnevely

Sir

I have the honor to bring to your notice the Conduct of one of the Tamil Goornastahs in your establishment named Moonasawmy Chetty at present doing duty in my Office.

A Yadast was received from your Office

No 102 dated May 21st, directing me to forward the record of Case No 102 in my file as the Prosecutor had appealed against my decision. I directed Moonasawmy Chetty Mudper, who reads the Yadast to me to get the record ready to send to you, as some of the depositions were in English, he asked Moonasawmy Chetty to enter them in the list of documents forming the record.

Moonasawmy Chetty had nothing to do, but instead of doing so, he took the documents away to his house last night, he is related to (son in law of) 1st Prosecutor and Connected with the other prosecutors who are up here at this present moment.

He did not complete the list, and, I am convinced, he took the record to his house for the purpose of informing the prosecutors fully of their Contents, or furnishing them with a Copy.

I went suddenly to the Cutcherry this morning and asked for them; he said they were in the box in the Cutcherry Tent; his Bandyman who was standing by with a bundle over his arm ran off, I had him caught, and the bundle taken off his arm, its contents were besides the documents in the case now alluded to, and 2 other cases decided under Regulation of 1822, the record of the case, received with your letter no 109 regarding the dismissed Archakals in Alwar Finnewelly, their Vakeel is the same person as the Vakeel in the above Case, this Moonshee had no business to take these papers to his house, he had not even the plea of pressure of business, which alone could be allowed in justification of taking the record to his house, he can only have done so to furnish the parties with information and in the first case I had refused Copies to the Prosecutors he also told me a direct falsehood in the presence of the whole Cutcherry saying that the papers were in the Cutcherry box. I should dismiss him were he on my Establishment but as he is only here temporarily, I refer his conduct for your decision, and have suspended him from this date.

Sir,

After an attentive Consideration of the statements contained in your letter of 23rd Instant and of the explanation offered by the Jamil Goomastah Moonsaibing Chetty it appears to me that his conduct in taking the documents referred to home and afterwards falsely stating that they were in the box in the Cutcherry Tent is open to much suspicion but it seems there is no proof that he actually allowed any interested parties to have access to the papers & I do not therefore feel justified in punishing him by dismission from the Service. He will be suspended for one year.

Remarks on the Salt Report by Mr. J. Silver Collector to Mr. J. Clarke Treasurer in 1865. "I have known him for a long time, and have always considered him a very efficient Officer, he also bears a very good Character." Extract from the Register of Incarcerated Servants in the Collectorate of Tanjore. Munisami Chettiar To the Honorable Salt Superintendent, 29 January 1865. (Signed) J. Silver Collector 10 Munisami was for some time Head Clerk in my Office. Mr. Justice spoke very highly of him and I was well satisfied with the conduct of his work whilst in my Office. He was promoted to a Salt Superintendent's place from which he was removed on the recommendation of the Board, Mr. Clarke being of opinion, that he had not sufficient Command over his Subordinates and was thus reduced from Rupees 55 to Rupees 25 per mensem. Had he reverted to his former appointment as Head Clerk, Salt & Dy Collector's Office he would have had Rupees 45 a month. The Petitioner can forward this petition with the endorsement for the information of the Collector in consideration of his claims in any change of appointments that may be taken place. 4-10-66. (Signed) D. E. Woodward Deputy Collector.
I have known A. Munisami Chettiar for the last 17 years. He is a good & faithful old servant of Government and has done good service in his day. His character is irreproachable & he has in my opinion sufficient energy for further service. (Signed) S. R. Locke Palamcottah 2 27 March 1884 3. (Signed) Dy Collector
