The applicant having attained his 55th year and being unable to furnish security in Government Treasury or Stock Notes, as required by the existing rules of the Government of India, he wished to retire of his own accord under Rule 9, Section 110 of the Civil Pension Code, 6th Edition, and was allowed to do so. His service book and Last Day Certificate are herewith sent. It will be seen that the service book is somewhat new and enters therein service made in 1880. The service book was prepared and given by him in that year, which on verification by the Vernacular Record-keeper, was found not to contain details as to certain acting appointments held by him. As there was no space in that book for making entries of these details, the applicant purchased and gave a fresh book in which entries of his services were accurately detailed in 1880.

The bearer Narasimmaachary is an A. Accountant in my office. He holds his present position from 1866. I have always found him diligent in his duties and obedient to his superiors and willing to assist his brother officers. He is an honest hard working trustworthy public servant and I shall certainly be very sorry to lose his services, but I shall be doing him an injustice if I stand in the way of his promotion. He is a good accountant and possesses a tolerable knowledge of English. During the long time he has been under me, I have not had the slightest cause to find fault with him. Extract from a letter from Mr. Jilly to the Secretary to the Board of Rev. audited in the B. S. 1904-550 P. 24. June 1878 para 24 x. The English had accounted of this Treasury a young man of the name of T. Rao appeared to me to be quite unfit for his position, the duties of which, indeed, he seemed to have tacitly relinquished to one of his subordinates, the 3rd English Accountant, an intelligent & hard working & efficient of considerable experience.

This is the man who ought to be head accountant and I sincerely hope will be promoted to that post whenever a vacancy occurs. He understands the work thoroughly and has kept the accounts for many years with great correctness. He is very respectful & quiet in his manner and has always given me great satisfaction. (Signed) J. C. W. S. S. S. S.

I have very great pleasure to testify to the abilities and good character of the P. J. M. Narasimmachary. He has a very good knowledge of accounts & of the order of the Accountant. During the period I was in charge of the Treasury of Account Sept. I was much pleased in the way.
