No entry need be made in this Column except when there is any thing either good or bad to be recorded. Suspensions should be noted here when the order of suspension is passed. I have much pleasure in certifying that Ananta Dyngar, a very superior public officer, is a servant of long experience in public business, possesses a good apprehension of the merits of cases and is trustworthy. I have been satisfied with his diligence and conduct during his employment in this Court. His honest, upright and agreeable conduct will lead the officers under whom he may serve to testify with pleasure to his fitness for further promotion. 29 January 1861. (Signed) Renga Chariy District Judge Ananta Dyngar, I consider a very superior public officer, very intelligent, and is very ethically upright. I promoted him to the head Summa Lashin of the Civil Court as he is peculiarly fitted for. It is to be regretted that the salary is so small, for it would be unfair to keep him from promotion which he merits. (Signed) R. P. Cotton Civil Judge A very zealous and efficient public servant. 28 January 1860 (Signed) L. A. O'Brien Civil Judge I have been quite satisfied with the manner Ananta Dyngar has performed his duty both in this occasion and last year when I was in charge of Civil Court. He is very quick and intelligent and manifests an especial aptitude for Civil business. 27 April 1860 (Signed) J. D. Cunningham Civil Judge	permitted

Ananta Singh is trustworthy & intelligent but with a bad & knows no English. He is a very deserving old servant but it is nearly time for him to retire. M. A. B. 82
So far as I have seen Ananta Singh seems to have done his duty well. M. A. B. 14.12.75

Though Criminal Judge, I found him doing the duties of Civil Judge in my absence in April. He is quick, active and hardworking. I am sure he would obtain promotion quicker, if he were only to apply himself to learning a little English. 21st October 1865 (Signed) C. N. P. R. R. R.
I called this officer from District Judge's Court and found him to be sharp and intelligent. I made him read Gurmasta and subsequently to the extra. pay. Head Gurmasta. I consider him the most efficient subordinate officer in the Civil and particularly for the Head Gurmasta. He has a very extensive ordinary and thoroughly acquainted with Civil office work. I believe him to be honest. I have never heard a word against him. He unfortunately does not know English and has not passed H. C. S. examination. He is however a most efficient officer and I think he will get 50 Rs. at least in the new arrangement of the Judicial Salaries. I have put him down for the Chuzishik when it might be next month. 5th April 1867. (Signed) R. R. R.
Ananta Singh seems to make himself useful in his post by care and assiduity. 3rd July 1868. (Signed) E. C. G. Thomas
Ananta Singh has shown the greatest diligence and considerable intelligence in superintending the Miscellaneous Petition Department. 23rd September 1868 (Signed) G. P. Sharpe
Ananta Singh is an old servant of many years standing, during which period he has always borne the best character for diligence and integrity. He is a valuable as an aid to the Sudderdar and the only reason why he failed in getting promotion to the post of Chuzishik vacant two years ago was his not having passed the prescribed examination. Notwithstanding this it was my firm intention to recommend him specially to Government on the next vacancy as irrespective of his not knowing English I consider him well qualified for the post. I generally select this servant when any Commission has the draft that requires care in its execution. 19th October 1872 (Signed) J. D. Goldingham
Ananta Singh has been seen by Mr. R. R. R. & could be heard his high character. 21st 7. 75. M. A. B.
