Sir,

I am directed to forward the accompanying memorial addressed to the Secretary of State for India by Mr. B. J. Taylor, late a clerk in the office of the Inspector General of Sails, Madras, appealing against the decision of this Govt. and the Govt. of India declining to grant him an increased pension.

2. The facts of the case were detailed in my letter dated the 6th June 1884 No. 495, which was answered by your letter of the 9th July 1884 No. 2099; and the memorialist was duly informed that the Govt. of India declined to interfere with the orders passed by this Govt. in his case. With this settlement of his claims he appears to have remained satisfied until June 87, when, on his petitioning for reconsideration of his case, this Govt. declined to modify the orders already passed. He repeated his request in Jan^y 1894 but was given the same answer. He now appeals to the Secretary of State, and I am to say that H.E. the Governor in Council has no recommendation to make on his behalf.
