1. In the annual returns for 1878 the applicant's name has been entered and his date of appointment is shown as "10 Nov 77." In the return for 1879 the date "9 August 1878" is the date of his promotion from Rs 20 to Rs 25.
2. He was granted leave on Private affairs from 2nd 11 Nov 1880. In which he was entitled as he had put in qualifying service of over 16 years on the above date inclusive of 13 years service rendered in other Departments, which qualifies for pension and leave in as much as he refunded the gratuity granted to him in Rs 427. Pension of 26-7-75.
3. The actual qualifying service for which the applicant was granted Compensatory gratuity in 1875 is counted towards pension. According to present orders service from age 20 is taken into account as qualifying and necessary corrections made in the pension application.
