Nellore
26th October 1896

To
His Excellency the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George

CHIEF SECRETARY
27 OCT. 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The humble Memorial of Bhagavantaraya Lala late
Deputy Tahsildar of Allur in the Nellore Taluq of the Nellore District -

Most respectfully sheweth -

1 That your Memorialist submitted a Memorial on the 18th December 1895, setting forth fully the circumstances of his case and praying for early orders as to the amount of pension to be determined upon, for which the requisite pension ∴ application was submitted to Government without any recommendation by the ∴ Collector in November last -

2. That though your Memorialist ~ retired from the Service in November last, still no orders have yet been passed in his case - a step calculated to put him to the greatest difficulties, for want of money to maintain — himself & his large family —

3. That the suit referred to in the Collector's Proceedings dated the 1st November 1895, the Copy of which already submitted in the said Memorial has not, as your Memorialist understands, yet been fixed even for hearing by the District Court, so that it may safely be presumed from the practice of the Civil Courts that it will take not less than 2 or 3 years more for its final disposal —

4. That if the pension amount be not determined upon pending the disposal of the suit, it would unnecessarily cause much hardship on your humble Memorialist for no fault of his own to eke out his subsistence as he has no other means of living but pension —

5. That the following is a brief summary of the facts relating to the subject of the suit in which your Memorialist had some concern so far as his memory permits. About 31 years ago, when your Memorialist held the Office of Deputy Tahsildar of Kota, the then Tahsildar of Gudur forwarded a Yadast calling on him to enquire whether or not certain lands situated in Govindapally hamlet of Kottapatam in Gudur Taluq were depastured by their owners; and on this, your Memorialist went to the village, took Kyfiets from the village officers & other Ryots of the same & surrounding villages & submitted the said Kyfiets to the Tahsildar with a Yadast containing the purport of the said Kyfiets. Some time afterwards, the Tahsildar again called on to say that the necessary compensation may be proposed in the matter, & in reply your Memorialist proposed certain amount as compensation on the strength of the Kyfiets or Statements given by the village authorities &c. In short, this is all what really took place in the matter in accordance with the Tahsildar's orders & that beyond this, your Memorialist had no hand in the business.

6. That under the circumstances set forth above, your humble Memorialist prays the Government will be pleased to sympathise with his hard case and pass favorable orders in his case at an early date & thus relieve him from the want of bare necessaries of life to which he has been & is now subjected for want of pension –

For this act of justice, your humble Memorialist will as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Memorialist begs to remain –
Your Excellency's
Your Most Obedient Servant

SUBJECT.

Prays for early orders on his pension application.

For Orders

Bhagavantarayalala's pension papers were rec^d. with the A.G.'s report No. AD/606 of 22.1.96. The A.G. certified that he was eligible for a retiring pension of Rs 44-8-7 p.m., for his qualifying sup^r. service of 31 years & odd. But no information was given by the Coll^r on the 3^d. page of the pension application regarding the applicant's character & past conduct, nor was the amount of pension proposed by the Coll^r given on the 1^st. page of the pension applic^n. There was also a petition from the man praying for early orders on his pension papers, & with the pet^n. he sent a copy of the Coll^r's Pr^ocgs to him to the effect that under the orders of the Board of Revenue no recommendation could be made by the Coll^r as to the amount c 7/11.

of pension until the pending suit was decided. The petr. was refd. to the Bd. of Revr. for remarks, on the 28.1.96, as to whether the suit refd to had been decided & whether orders had been passed on its subject matter. The Board answered the queries in the negative. The B.P. was recorded. On the 28th Augt 96 also the Board said that the suit in question was not posted for hearing by the 17th Augt 96 & that it was not known when it wd be posted. This B.P. was recorded. G.O. $\frac{854}{12.9.96}$ Pen.

The petr. now ~~prays~~ repeats his request for early orders on his pension papers. "For orders.

sd $\frac{}{30/10}$ Please see the B.P. marked with red tape & also. The petr. should be informed of the reason why orders have not been passed on his pension application. He must have known ~~guessed~~ the reason from the B.P. — I saw in the personal bundle today a G.O. about the delays in the Nellore Court & submit for orders the question whether this pension application should lie over any longer. When the papers were first received it was thought that an early decision of the suit might be expected

B.P. $\frac{898}{21.2.96}$ & G.O. $\frac{169}{27.2.96}$ in which the Board said "no orders can be passed on the petr's case until the suit is decided." Govt itself acquiesced in this view of the case before (G.O. $\frac{4151}{22.10.95}$)

This suit relates to a claim made by one Pitchi Reddi of the Nellore Dt. for compensation for loss of produce for certain years in respect of two blocks of his lands. There were some lock-spittings made on the two blocks in 1881 & 1884 by the Public Works Dept for diversion of a canal, but the lines were immediately diverted & the party was free to enjoy his lands. The party alleges that the lands were not formally made over to him till Augt 1893. The Collr denies these allegations, & Govt. sanction has been given for defending the suit — G.O. No. 3470 d/ 27th Augt. 1895, Rev.—

In 1890, Pitchi Reddi's father petitioned the Collr praying either for remission of assessment charged on the lands or for compensation for loss of produce. The petn. was refd. to the Deputy Tahr. (applicant for pension) for report & on his report that the man had been ~~was~~ out of possession, the Tahsildar was directed to estimate the amount of compensation.

The Tahr & the Deputy Tahr (applict for pension) are reported to have not scrutinized the claim properly, & but to have recklessly recommended large amounts to be paid as compensation. Ittchi Reddi's father also alleged in 1888 that the Deputy Tahr (applicant for pension) ordered him not to cultivate his lands. The Collr reported the conduct of the Tahr & the Deputy Tahr to the Board, & the Board, when asking Govt sanction for defending the suit, remarked that due notice wd. be taken of their conduct after the suit had been decided. The suit has not yet been posted for hearing & it is not known when it is likely to be posted. The Dy. Tahr has now retired & the Collr. has made no recommendation as to the amount of pension to be given to him, nor has he recorded in the pension applicn anything about the man's character & past conduct. He thinks that the applicant for pension may turn out "a hostile witness" in the suit. For orders.

This is of course not a sufficient reason for delaying the issue of orders. The reason is that that, in connection with this case, the petr. is suspected of having acted with corruptness or gross negligence & the ~~issue of orders~~ Board has purposely delayed punishing him until all the facts have been brought out by the civil suit. The petr. affects ignorance of the affair & asks for early orders on his applicn. (vide petn. marked with white tape in the current). Now that there is no apparent likelihood of an early decision of the suit, it is for consideration whether a provisional pension of say half or 3/4 the amount due him shd. not be granted, subject to reduction subsequently if cause be shewn.

I think 1/2 might be given but not more. It is also for consideration that if he be dismissed he will get no pension but this cd. perhaps be met by withdrawing it.

Half pension may be granted provisionally. He retired 2 years ago.
