Vellore
26th October 1896

To His Excellency the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George Madras,

The humble memorial of Bhagawan taraya Lal late Deputy Tahsi Dar of Alwar in the Vellore Taluk of the Vellore District.

Most respectfully sheweth -

1. That your Memorialist submitted a memorial on the 18th December 1895, setting forth fully the circumstances of his case and praying for early orders as to the amount of pension to be determined upon, for which the requisite pension application was submitted to Government without any recommendation by the Collector in November last.

2. That though your Memorialist retired from the Service in November last, still no orders have yet been passed in his case - a step calculated to put him to the greatest difficulties.

connection with its subject matter.

3. That the suit referred to in the Collector's Proceedings dated the 1st November 1895, the copy of which already submitted in the said Memorial has not, as your Memorial understands, yet been fixed upon for hearing by the District Court, so that it may safely be presumed from the practice of the Civil Courts that it will take not less than 2 or 3 years ^{more} for its final disposal —

4. That if the pension amount be not determined upon pending the disposal of the suit, it would unnecessarily cause much hardship on your humble Memorialist for no fault of his own to eke out his subsistence as he has no other means of living but pension —

5. That the following is a brief summary of the facts relating to the subject of the suit, in which your Memorialist had some concern so far as his memory permits. About 30 years ago, when your Immorialist held the office of Deputy Tahsilour of Kotta, the then Tahsilour of Gujran forwarded a Yadrash calling on him to enquire whether or not certain lands situated in Gujranpally have let of Kotta palace in Gujran Taluk, were depastured by their owners; and on this, your Immorialist went to the village, took Ryfiests from the village officers & other Ryots of the same & surrounding villages & submitted the said Ryfiests to the Tahsilour with a Yadrash containing the purport of the said Ryfiests. Some time afterwards, the Tahsilour again called on to see that the necessary Compensation may be proposed in the matter, & in reply your Immorialist proposed certain amount as Compensation on the strength of the Ryfiests or statements given by the village authorities &c. In short, this is all what really took place in the matter in accordance with the Tahsilour's orders & that being said, your Immorialist had no hand in the business.

6. That under the Circumstances set forth above, Your humble Memorialists trusts the Government will be pleased to sympathize with his hard Case and pass favorable orders in his Case at an early date & thus relieve him from the want of bare necessities of life to which he has been & is now subjected for want of pension -

For their act of justice, Your humble Memorialists will as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Memorialists begs to Remain

Your most Obedient Servant

This suit relates to a claim made by one Pitchi Reddi of the Nellore D^o for compensation for loss of produce for certain years in respect of two blocks of his lands. There were some lock-spitting, made on the two blocks in 1881 & 1884 by the Public Works Dept for diversion of a canal, but the lines were immediately diverted & the party was free to enjoy his lands. The party alleges that the lands were not formally made over to him till Aug^r 1893. The Coll^r denies this. Allegations, & Govt. sanction has been given for defending the suit - G.O. No. 3470 dt 27th Aug^r 1895, Rs- In 1890, Pitchi Reddi's father petitioned the Coll^r for remission of assessment charged on the lands or for compensation for loss of produce. The pet^r was ref^d to the Deputy S^o (applicant for pension) for report & on his report that the man ^{had been} out of possession, the S^o was directed to estimate the amount of compensation.

The Jaha & the Deputy Jaha (applicant for pension) are reported to have ~~not~~ ^{but to have} scrutinized the claim properly & ~~recklessly~~ recommended large amounts to be paid as compensation.

Mahi Reddi's father also alleged in 1888 that the Deputy Jaha (applicant for pension) ordered him ~~not~~ to cultivate his lands. The Col. reported the conduct of the Jaha & the Deputy Jaha to the Board, & the Board, when asking Govt sanction for defending the suit, remarked that one who wd. be taken of their conduct after the suit had been decided. The suit has not yet been posted for hearing & it is not known when it is likely to be posted.

The D. J. Jaha has now retired & the Col. has made no recommendation as to the amount of pension to be given to him, nor has he recorded in the pension application anything about the man's character & past conduct. He thinks that the applicant for pension may turn out "a hostile witness" in the suit. In Orders.

This is of course not a sufficient reason for delaying the issue of orders. The reason is that in connection with this case the Jaha is suspected of having acted with cozenage or gross negligence & the issue of orders Board has purposely delayed punishing him until all the facts have been brought out by the civil suit. The Jaha affects ignorance of the affair & asks for early orders on his application (the Jaha marked with whole tape in the current). Now that there is no ^{apparent} likelihood of an early decision of the suit, it is for consideration whether a provisional pension of 20% ^{or 3/4} of the amount due him should be granted, subject to reduction subsequently if cause be shown.

Do
6/11/96

Half pension may be granted provisionally. He retired 2 years ago.

28
8/11/96

I think you might be given but not more. It is also for consideration that if he be dismissed he will get no pension but this is perhaps he must be withdrawing it.
