2nd Grade Head Constable No 661 Janoolobdeen ~~was~~ is reduced to 4th Grade Head Const on 1.2.78

A robbery Case is said to have occurred at Yerramreddy pally in Pulivendla Taluq on the 25th November last. The Village Magistrate Says on 26th whereas it is well known that it did occur on the 25th and the Head Constable Janoolobdeen of Pulivendla at once proceeded to the spot and was there the whole day and night and also on the 26th. The Village Magte reported that the Complainant in the Case Station Crime No $\frac{230}{77}$ is said to have well recognised the defendant and the Village Magistrate together with the Head Constable Concocted and made up the Case of Robbery against Chinna Byanna a man whom the Village Magistrate greatly hated. This unfortunate man after delay of 3 days by the Head Constable was arrested by him – as said to have been recognised by the Complainant and also to have Confessed – before the Village Magistrate and delivered up some portion of the property ~~of the property~~ the man's house searched and he was degraded in every way he could be by the Head Constable

27 AUG. 1896 Bellary

Judicial Department No. 6 1230

Janoolobdeen - the man was put on his trial the recognition by Complainant was denied and the giving up of property was all found to be clearly concocted by the Head Constable and the Village Magistrate at the instigation of the latter as the defendant is too respectable a man ever to have been mixed up in such a case and he was at once released by Deputy Magistrate. It is most disgraceful behaviour on the part of the Head Constable and all his previous punishment appear to have done him no good - he is quite unfitted for the post he holds and is reduced again to 4th Grade Head Constable from 1st February 1878. 4th Grade Head Constable No. 661 Janoolobdeen is reduced to 1st Class Constable on 8. 2. 78.

Office of the Superintendent ... 27 AUG. 1896 Bellary

On the 24th January 1878 a case of suicide was reported at Holivendlu village it was reported to Station on 25. 1. 78 a woman had committed suicide. Head Constable Janoolobdeen having proceeded to the spot and made enquiries frightened the husband and extorted from him 60 Rupees - twenty of which were there is little doubt given to the village Magistrate and Head Constable pretended 20 were for his Inspector and the remainder he took for himself. This afterwards having came to the knowledge of the Constables the Head Constable was afraid the Inspector would hear of it, he Head Constable made out he had received 9 Rupees and made over 12½ annas each to the Constables 171, 490, 997 and 179 and 14 annas to Constable 792 as he had been to the village the latter being the Station writer and refusing this amount. Station House Officer then made up a false case of misappropriating some money in Station desk - the money having actually been removed by the Head Constable himself - this occurred on 29th January. On 31st Inspector who had been on Circuit returned to Pulivendla and heard all this from the Constables and on the 1st he received a petition from the Constables who gave up the Money given them by Head Constable 12½ annas each. This amount this Head Const afterwards stated before Balapanoor Station House officer and Inspector he gave as a loan to each of the men as they had asked him this of Course they all denied as it was utterly false. On the 2nd Inspector went to the village to enquire into the Case - but Head Constable Janoolobdeen anticipating this sent his younger brother - there before hand to Caution Village Magistrate (and as he had taken 20 Rupees) when Inspector arrived he could get no information in public to prosecute Head Constable on but there is very little doubt that the Head Constable did extort this amount and then tried to buy the Constables over also not succeeding in this the Case came out, the Head Const's Conduct is most disgraceful Nothing is of any use he quite deserves dismissal and is quite unfitted to hold the position of Station House officer he is reduced to 1st Class Constable from the 8th February 1878.

4 G HC No 40 Zainulabidin. is reduced from 3rd Grade to 4th Grade on 8-12-85.

For sending lengthy foolish petition blaming his Inspector and submitting an explanation Containing most objectionable remarks.

This Head Constable was specially selected for Serigerra Statn in August last to watch the Korchas; he did not wish to go but was personally informed by the Supdt. that he desired the arrangement and was exhorted to work cheerfully. In spite of this he has maintained dogged unwillingness sending lengthy foolish petitions blaming his Inspector when Checked for irregularities. He has done no good work whatever. In September he submitted an expln. Containing most objectionable and insubordinate remarks against his Inspector requesting transfer but was warned that he would certainly not be transferred under the circumstances.

He now submits another foolish lengthy petition dated 21st November asking for transfer.

For gross Carelessness and laziness in not writing up a Case in his crime register and failing to observe the Taluq magistrate's takid to alter the section—

This Hd Con. was in Charge of Kuditani Stn. In Register No 28 of 1888 of that station the accused was arrested last month he having absconded to evade arrest during the interval of over 2 years; on reference to the crime register only the Complaint was found to have been entered and there was no record whatever of the statements of witnesses on ~~in~~ which a warrant had been issued; Hd Constable had moreover failed to obey a takid issued by the Taluq magistrate to alter the section from 381 to 406. IPC.

Defence- Head Constable pleads that he was on leave when the Complaint was received; this does not the least excuse his having failed to write up the Case in his own station Register; he was moreover present and on duty when the magistrate's takid was received

He had not even taken the trouble to mark the date of receipt on this and initial. He further pleads domestic troubles. Head Constable is habitually extremely Careless & inattentive to his duty; so the excuse cannot be received. The Superintendent knows that Hd Constable is given to practising a physician and presumably neglects his work for this. order — He is reduced to 4th Grade
