1st Grade Head Const, No. 294 - Mr. Ibrahim of P. Division is charged with neglect of duty and general inefficiency. Denies the charge.

I visited the station of this Head Constable at the end of July, I found the station absolutely without any discipline. The men did not obey orders, they could not do any drill, they were not taught; in fact the station showed that Head Const had absolutely neglected his duties and was inefficient. The Deputy Inspector General who visited the station about the same time found the Head Constable ignorant of drill and slovenly. I do not consider the Head Constable should be a 1st Grade any more. He should make way for a better man. He seemed unfit for further service, but he has not passed the Doctor, so I reduce him.

him to 2^d Bradstreet Constable from 23^d September 1896.
