To,

Sir,

At the time District Muniifs were made Gazetted officers and allowed to draw their pay upon their own bills, their Service books were called for and retained by the Accountant General. Accordingly, I sent in my Service book to him and have therefore no records with me to show the particulars of my Service since that date. Under the impression that, on that account, no application for pension from me was necessary, I have not forwarded any; as, however, it now appears that one is necessary, I have the honor to request that

537
I may be supplied with a form of application at an early date so that there may be no further delay in the sanction of my pension. If, however, owing to the fact that the Accountant General has a complete register of my services, nothing more than a formal application be required, I request that this letter may be treated as such.

I have the honor to be

The Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras.

Sir,

In submitting herewith an application for pension on behalf of Mr. R. S. Subramania Iyer Acergal, late District Munsif of Quilandy, I have the honour to state that the delay in its submission is due to the following facts:-

2. The District Munsif, the very next day of his retirement left this district without leaving his address. He did not put in the application for pension or take any initiative steps to get his pension sanctioned. His service book was in the custody of the Accountant General and in the absence of the Service Register this Court had not before it sufficient materials for the preparation of the pension application. As clause 4, of article 73 of the Civil Service Regulations made it incumbent upon the retiring Officer himself or on the head of his department to prepare the application of Gazetted Officers for pension and I had not come across any ruling delegating the power of the High Court in connection with the preparation of the pension applications of gazetted Officers to the District Judges I remained under the impression that the Accountant-General would forward the Service Register to the High Court with a view to the pension application being prepared there.

3. Waiting for a reasonable time and no order having been received in the matter of the Munsif's pension for two months I wrote to him at Talta Mangalam in Cochin territory to enquire whether he had sent in his application for pension direct. Receiving a reply in the negative I, on the 18th October last, wrote to the Accountant-General to send the Munsif's Service Register to me if it has not already been sent to the High Court. I received the Service

Register on the 1st Instant and this application is submitted on the 7th.
