R No 1341 of 94

The enclosures submitted with the A12 charge show that P.O. no 330 Govindan Nair has been grossly neglecting his duty.

The P.O. is reduced to the rank of 1st Gr. Duf for the specific offence of failing to post tickets No 27975 + 27972 and giving a false explanation as to the former. The counterfoil has been distinctly tamp with though there is no evidence to bri this directly home to the P.O.

The enclosures submitted show that P.O. is a lazy incompetent man and he s be warned that if he does not show marked improvement he will be more severely dealt with

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue),

Dated 23rd April 1895.

No. 1668 Mis.

Read the following letter from the Assistant Commissioner, Calicut Sub Division, dated 1st April 1895, No. 1317.

" I have the honour to submit herewith an application for invalid gratuity of Rs 60, on behalf of M. Govindan Nair, late 1st grade Duffadar, Ponani Circle, under article 524 &c of the Civil Service Regulations, and to append the following remarks.

2. The applicant was serving in the Police Department from 5th December 1872 to 31st March 1882, when he was transferred to the Salt Department. During the above period he was absent without leave on four occasions, the effect of which is to forfeit his past service under article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations. However, Considering his long service of more than 22 years and that he has been fined on each occasion a sum not less than the pay of the period he was absent from duty, and taking also into Consideration the fact that the total period of unauthorized absence amounts to only 7 days, I recommend that the Board may be pleased to move Government to Condone the period of interruption under article 465 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Condn not necessary

3. The applicant although transferred to the temporary list from 1st October 1891, on the formation of the Cochin Frontier Circle, Counts his detached service towards pension under article 410 of the Civil Service Regulations.

4. There has been a delay of nearly six weeks in the submission of this application in the Ponani Circle Office, for which the Inspector, Mr Smither, is responsible.

The Certificate of the medical officer invaliding the applicant was received in the Inspector's office on the 16th February 1895, and instead of submitting the application at once in the prescribed form, Mr Smither reported for my orders a week later the fact of the applicant having been invalided by the medical officer. I at once directed him to submit the usual application which was received in my office only on the 29th Instant. Mr Smither explains the delay as follows:—

"The delay in the submission of the same (application) is due to nonreceipt of information from the Superintendent of Police, Malabar, regarding contributions against superannuation fund of the individual above referred to, while working in the Police Department. As soon as that information is received I shall without any waste of time forward the same to you."

In the first place Mr. Smither should have known that his action in having sent the applicant for medical examination without getting the pension application ready was opposed to the existing orders on the subject; and secondly that the applicant would not be entitled to pension even had he contributed to the Superannuation fund while in the Police Department as he has not put in the requisite service for pension.

5. The following records are submitted together with the application.

1 Service Book
2 Medical Officer's Certificate accompanied by a statement of the case."

Resolution.

1 Service Book
2 Medical Certificate with a statement.
3 Copies of orders reducing the applicant on two occasions.

The application for an invalid gratuity of Rs 60-„-„ received with the paper read above on behalf of M. Govindan Nair, late a 1st grade Duffadar, Ponani Circle, is herewith forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras for submission to Government together with the papers noted in the margin.

2. It is observed that the applicant was employed in the Police Department for 9 years 3 months and 27 days from 5th December 1872 to 31st March 1882 and, on the transfer of the Salt Police to the Salt Department was transferred to that Department on the 1st April 1882. It is not known whether he contributed to the Police Superannuation fund and whether he elected to retire under Scale A or B of the Superannuation Fund rules (vide article 552 of the Civil Service Regulations). The Board does not, however, think it necessary to call for the information from the Inspector-General of Police as the applicant is not entitled to any pension for his superior service in that Department

Absence on [illegible]
Privilege leave from 4th [illegible]
April [illegible]

Department, which is less than 15 years, the minimum period required to earn a pension under the Superannuation Fund Rules.

3. Column "How verified" on the second page of the application has not been filled up. The Assistant Commissioner is requested to submit a certificate as to the class of records (such as pay bills, acquittance rolls, etc) from which the periods of service were verified.

4 days from 19 to 22 May 73
1 day on 12-4-77

1 " " 20-2-82

4. The applicant is reported to have been absent without leave for 7 days while he was employed in the Police Department, as per particulars in the margin. This would entail forfeiture of his service amounting to 9 years 2 months and 17

17 days from 5th December 1872 to 20th February 1882, under article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations and the net pensionable service at his credit would be only 12 years 11 months and 22 days, for which he would be entitled to a gratuity equal to 4 months' pay Rs 40, instead of Rs 60, recommended by the Assistant Commissioner. But as this will be hard on the applicant the Board requests that Government will be pleased to commute the period into leave without allowances under article 464 of the Civil Service Regulations. This concession has been granted in a similar case. Vide Government Order 396, dated 1st May 1893, Pension ~~Public~~ Department.

5. The explanation furnished by the

Inspector

Inspector, Ponani Circle, for the delay in the submission of the gratuity application is unsatisfactory. He should be directed to guard against its recurrence.

III Explanation of the following discrepancies.–

(a) In my office records from 1884 to 1886 the year of the applicant's birth is given as 1852 instead of 1845 as entered in his Service book and on the 1st page of the application.

(b) In the accompanying true copy of the Extract from Minute Book it is stated that the applicant was absent without leave on the 6th and 7th October 1880, which is not noted either in his service book or on the 2nd page of the application.

IV. It is requested that the information referred to in para 2 of its Proceedings may be obtained from the Inspector General of Police and furnished to this office for transmission to Govt. Should it be found that the applicant could be granted a separate gratuity under the Police superannuation Fund rules, the Govt. may perhaps think it advisible to grant it under Article 436 of the Civil Service Regulations.

With reference to your memo No. 2366, dated 7th June 1895, communicating extract of the Accountant General's objection on the pension application of M. Govindan Nair, late a 1st grade Duffadar in the Ponnani Circle and requesting to explain the discrepancy with regard to the date of his birth, I have the honour to state that on going through the records of my office, I find that there has been some unnoticed mistake in the information furnished to his office, regarding the date of birth of the individual in question. In the annual detailed statement of the establishment as it stood on 1st April 1883, the above information is altogether wanting; in the corresponding statement for 1884, the date is shown as 1852, whereas in the statement for 1888, it is shown as 1845. This last is also the date in the Inferior Servants' Register first opened in the Circle in which the applicants name finds a place. Under these circumstances I beg to state that I am of opinion that the correct date is 1845 and that the wrong entry of 1852 found in some of the records must have been due to some clerical error which it is beyond my power now to explain.

ADDRESS—

SIR,

With reference to the Board's Proceedings no. 1894 Routine dated 20th Instant Communicated with your memorandum no. 3200 dated 25th Idem regarding the Pension application of first grade Duffadar no. 330 Govinda Nair, I have the honor to report that the office copy of the list of Establishment as it stood on 1st april 1892 is ~~maintained~~ forthcoming in my office under initial of the Inspector Mr Marjoribanks dated 14th June 1892 and I presume that a fair has gone in. But whether it was despatched direct to the Accountant General or through your office as it used to be done for a time, is not traceable as the tappal books of that period is not forthcoming. The name of this Duffadar is not shown in this office copy either

This officer was working in the Frontier Party on the borders of the Palghat Circle to check the smuggling of salt and was attached to the strength of this Circle. When the Frontier No. I Circle was formed he was transferred to that Circle from 1st October 1891. Since which date his name has been omitted to be shown in the Pay bills of this office whether through an oversight or through a misapprehension of the rules, I am not in a position to say at present. And as his name was not in the P. Bills it was omitted to be shown in the Establishment lists for 1893 and 1894.

I was unable to detect the omission alluded to as it occurred in the time of Mr. Marjoribanks over a year before I was posted to this Circle.

an invalid gratuity of Rs (40) Forty in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of 12 years, 10 months & 13 days under art: 436, 465 & 524(a) of the C.S.R.

4. No recovery need be made on account of the leave allowances irregularly drawn by the applicant in April 1874.

The applt. has been in Govt. Employ for 22 years — For the first 9 years & 2 months he was in the Police Dept. & this part of his service ranks as "superior" — for 12 years & 10 months he was in the Salt Dept. Which service counts as "inferior"

For the "superior" service a gratuity of Rs 72 is claimed for the inferior Rs 40.

If however art: 465 A. (2) (a) applies, as it seems to do, in this case, the deficiency of 9 months & 23 days in the applt's superior service can be condoned out of his inferior service, & instead of a gratuity he will be entitled to a pension of Rs 1-11-10 p.m. i.e. $\frac{10}{60}$ of his "superior" pay for 10 years service & a gratuity of Rs 40/ for the inferior service.

[In writing the above it was overlooked that applt. when in the Police ~~probably~~ may have elected in 1872 to serve under the Old Superannuation Rules & in that case he would not be entitled to pension under 15 years ~~service~~ in "superior" service. No election certificate however is forwarded, & he was enlisted in Dec. 1872 the last year that such election was allowable so that it is possible that he was not given the option of election. It rests with H.the. to give him the benefit of the doubt.

The applt's character is recorded as satisfactory.]

This appears correct, but the usual case to which Art 465 A applies is that of the man who retires from superior service, having previous inferior service to his credit; it is open to argument whether the converse case is covered by the article. D

As the Art. is worded, I think it is correct in the applicant's service under art: 465 A (2) (a) C.S.R & to granting him a pension on the supr scale of Rs 1.11.10 p.m., but adds that if this concession is made, the applicant foregoes the gratuity admissible for his inferior service, with reference to the note at the end of art: 465 A C.S.R

For orders.

A/7/12 The note states that "the two clauses of this sec: are alternative & not cumulative" It therefore rests with H.Ex. to decide whether in this case the gratuity — Rs 112 — should be sion, or a pension of Rs 1-11-10 p.m.

The gratuity is the cheaper course as the applt: is only 50 years of age, but on the other hand his med: cert: shows that he is suffering from "incipient cataract" — rendering him unable to earn a livelihood — & the pension though small seems the more humane course.

H.
18-12.

Please see O.M. to the Acctt: Genl No. 104 of 20.12.95 & his reply No. IAE/444 of 16.1.96.

The Acctt-Genl says that in the case of an officer claiming a pension for superior service who has also rendered inferior service the Local Govt. can under article 465 2 (a) C.S.R. condone a deficiency in his qualifying superior service not exceeding half his inferior service and also not exceeding 12 months; and that when this has been done he forfeits all claim to a separate gratuity for his inferior service, as it cannot be the intention of the rules that he should secure a double benefit for the same service. In illustration he cites the case where the inferior service was exactly 10 years, in which, he says, it could hardly be contended that the whole inferior service should be counted towards a gratuity, and should then be counted over again in order to secure a condonation of a year's superior service. He suggests that if the point is not free from doubt a reference may be made to India for an authoritative decision. The Acctt Genl's illustration does not seem in point. For orders as to whether a reference should be made to India.

JKS/18.1.96 The A.G. seems to miss the point entirely; in the case which he states, there wld. be no balance of inferior service for which gratuity could be granted, for if a portion of it were utilised in condoning the deficiency in superior service, the balance would be less than 10 years. It was never supposed that the inferior service could be counted twice over; merely that a portion of it should be allowed to condone a deficiency in superior service, & the balance counted for gratuity or pension on the inferior scale. — It is easy to state a case which will shew the hardship of the A.G.'s view that all inferior service is lost if a portion of it is taken to condone a deficiency in superior service, E.g. in this particular instance, the applicant gains nothing by 11 years of his inferior service; the deficiency in superior service which it is sought to condone is only 9 months & 23 days & this might have been condoned if his inferior service had only been double that amount or 1 year 7 months & 16 days. He thus derives no benefit whatever from 11 years 2 months & 27 days of inferior service

FOR ORDERS.

The attached notes read together with the official memoranda on the reverse of currents 1705 & 29, & with C. No. 91 detail this pension case. Briefly put, it is as follows:—

The applicant, whose character is recorded as satisfactory, has (A) 9 years & 2 months & 7 days superior service in the police & (B) 12 years 10 months & 13 days inferior service in the Salt & Abkari Dept.—

For (A) he is entitled to a gratuity of Rs 72: for (B) to a gratuity of Rs 40. If however the deficiency of 9 months & 23 days in (A) is condoned, his total superior service will be 10 years, & he will be eligible for a pension of Rs 1. 11. 10 on that account. The deficiency can be condoned out of the inferior service, (C.S.R. Art. 465), but the Accountant General argues that such condonation will make him forfeit all claim to gratuity on account of his 12 years inferior service. – The inequity of this ruling is made clear by the reference on the reverse of C. 29, but in C. 91 the A.G. adheres to his view & suggests a reference to "India" if Govt. does not agree with him; if his interpretation is correct, it is clear that the rule is inequitable & should be modified; if it is incorrect, we should know it.

Orders are now solicited as to
(i) whether a refce shd. be made to India on the general question
(ii) whether this applicant should in the meantime be given A. gratuities amounting to Rs. 112, or B a pension of Rs. 1. 11. 10, or C a pension of Rs. 1. 11. 10 plus a gratuity of Rs. 40.
His character is recorded as satisfactory but he has been twice reduced once in 1881, & again in 1894. His total service is over 22 years as police constable & salt daffadar

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No. 1444, dated the 27th of November 1895, I have the honour to state that it is not clear whether the Government intends granting to the applicant only a pension for his earlier Superior Service after condoning the deficiency of 9 months and 23 days in his service in superior grades, or both pension for his superior service and a gratuity for his subsequent inferior service. There is no objection to the Government condoning the deficiency of 9 months and 23 days, under the powers vested in it by Article 465 A 2 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, and granting the applicant a pension on the superior scale of Rs 1. 11. 10 at 10/60ths of his average emoluments. But, if this concession is made, the applicant foregoes any gratuity admissible in respect of his inferior service of the note at the end of the Article

SIR,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No: 104, dated the 20th December 1895, requesting me to detail the reasons for my opinion that the applicant must forfeit all claim to gratuity in respect of the balance of his Inferior Service, if a portion of it is utilized as a means of condoning the deficiency of 9 months and 23 days in his Superior Service, I have the honour to state that in the case of an Officer claiming a pension for Superior Service, who has also rendered Inferior Service, the Local Government, under the powers vested in it by Article 465 A, 2(a) of the Civil Service Regulations, can condone a deficiency in his qualifying superior service not exceeding half his Inferior Service, and also not exceeding 12 months. When this has been done I am of opinion, that he should forfeit all claim to a separate gratuity for his Inferior Service. It cannot, as I think, be the intention of the rules that he should secure a double benifit for the same service; this point would be particularly clear in a case where the inferior service was exactly 10 years, in which case it could hardly be contended that the whole Inferior Service should be counted towards a gratuity and should then be counted over again in order to secure a condonation of a year's superior service.

If, however, the point is not considered entirely free from doubt and Government are not prepared to accept the above view, I would respectfully request that the case be submitted to the Government of India for an authoritative decision.

The papers received with your Memo: under reply are herewith returned.

But supposing his inferior service was 14 years & it was desired to condone a deficiency in superior service of 6 months, ~~it might~~ ~~however~~ the condonation might be made if his inferior service were only one year; in which case he gets nothing for 13 years.

Explaining why a person should forfeit all his claim to gratuity when a portion or whole of his inferior service has been utilized &c in condoning a deficiency in his superior service

Cor.—4,000—18-5-95.

Refce.: No. 3 d/18th Jany. 1896.

The A.G. is in error in supposing that it was ~~not~~ believed that the rules admitted of the same service being counted twice over for pension. What was suggested was that in the event of a portion of a man's inferior service being utilized to condone a deficiency in superior service the remaining portion of the inferior service should be permitted to count for pension or gratuity on the inferior scale. In the case which the A.G. cites, the remaining portion wld. be less than 10 years & would thus not entitle the individual to any pension or gratuity. – As the Govt. apprehend, the A.G. considers, that, to state an extreme case, if a single day of a man's inferior service is utilized to condone a deficiency in superior service, he is not entitled to count the balance of his inferior service – although it may amount to 15 or 20 years – towards an inferior service gratuity. The hardship of this view is sufficiently apparent in the present case. Had the applicant's inferior service been only 1 year 7 mos & 16 days the deficiency in superior service of half that period might have been condoned. His inferior service however amounts to 12 years 10 months & 13 days, & he thus derives absolutely no benefit from nearly 11¼ years of that service. In these circs. the A.G. is requested to state whether he adheres to his previous opinion.

SIR,

With reference to your memorandum No. 3 dated the 18th of January 1896, I have the honour to state that the Government is correct in interpreting my views, according to which, if any portion of a man's inferior service is utilized to condone a deficiency in superior service, he must forfeit all claim to a separate gratuity for his inferior service whatever be the extent of the total service on the inferior scale. I expressed no opinion as to the hardship or otherwise of the rule this not being my province. I only applied the principle that no service should count twice over and took what seemed to me to be the only reading of the wording of the rules which is consistent with that principle. If it was the intention of Government to allow one portion of inferior service to count towards superior service and another portion towards gratuity on the inferior scale, it seems to me it would have been natural to say that inferior service not exceeding two years might be counted as equivalent to half that amount of superior service the remainder qualifying the officer for a gratuity on the inferior scale. I must therefore adhere to my previous opinion and request, if it be not accepted, that the point be referred to the Government of India.

All the papers received with your memorandum under reply are herewith returned.

LETTER

To

The Secy: to the Govt. of India,
Finance & Com: dept:

Sir,

I am directed to solicit an expression of the views of the Govt. of India in regard to the interpretation which should be assigned to the wording of Art. 465 A ~~(a)~~ (2) of the C.S.R. The question regarding which an authoritative decision is desired is whether an officer is eligible for any pension or gratuity in respect of his inferior service in addition to a gratuity or pension granted on account of his superior service when a deficiency in the latter has been condoned in consideration of the fact that the officer has also rendered inferior service. I am to explain that this reference arises out of the case of a duffadar in the Salt and Abkari dept: who had rendered prior service in the Police. ~~The~~ His prior service which ranks as superior was 9 years, 2 months and 7 days in length, the subsequent inferior service amounting to 12 years, 10 months and 13 days. The A.G. in forwarding the pension application certified that the applicant was entitled to a gratuity of Rs.72 being 9 months' pay in respect of his superior service and to a further gratuity of Rs.40 being 4 months' pay in respect of his inferior service. In view of the fact that the applicant's total service at the time when he was invalided was 22 years, H.E. the Governor in Council, however, desired to condone the deficiency of 9 months and 23 days required in order to bring up the applicant's superior service to the total of 10 years and thus to entitle him to a pension ~~to a gratuity pension~~ in lieu of a gratuity.

Reference was made to the A.G. and that officer reported that Govt. was at liberty to condone the deficiency under the powers vested in it by Art. 465A 2 (a) but that if this concession was made the applicant must forego any gratuity admissible in respect of his inferior service. The A.G. was requested to explain his reasons for this opinion and they will be found in the accompanying extract from ~~the~~ his letter in reply.

"It cannot, as I think, be the "intention of the rules that he should "secure a double benefit for the same "service; this would be particularly "clear in a case where the inferior "service was exactly 10 years in which "case it could hardly be contended "that the whole inferior service "should be counted towards a gratuity "and ~~than~~ should then be counted over "again in order to secure a condona"tion of a year's superior service." It was then pointed out to the A.G. that the anomaly of counting the same service twice over would not exist if a portion of the applicant's inferior service were utilized in condoning the deficiency ~~of the~~ in superior service and the balance only were permitted to count for pension or gratuity on the inferior scale. The A.G. however still adheres to his views on the ground that if it were the intention of Govt. to allow one portion of the inferior service to count towards superior pension and another portion towards gratuity on the inferior scale, the rule would have expressly provided that inferior service not exceeding two years might be counted as equivalent to half the amount of ~~infe-~~ superior service, the remainder qualifying the officer for a gratuity on the inferior scale. I am to point out that as the rules at present stand it is not expressly stated that inferior service which has been taken into consideration in order to condone a deficiency in suprrior service should not be permitted to count at all for pension. It would, however as the A.G. points out, be an anomaly to permit an officer to count his service twice over, but inasmuch as the rule proceeds on the assumption that superior service is from a pension point of view, twice as valuable as inferior service, it appears to this Govt. that it should be expressly laid down that in case where ~~the~~ deficiency in superior service is condoned in consideration of additional inferior service, the latter should be reduced by an amount equivalent to double the deficiency in the former, the balance being allowed to count for pension or gratuity on the inferior scale.

2. The case out of which this reference arises is a sufficiently strong instance of the hardship resulting from the acceptance of the A.G.'s view. Had the length of applicant's inferior service been only one year, 7 months and 16 days, the deficiency in superior service of half that period might equally well be condoned. If the Accountant General's contention is correct, he would derive absolutely no benefit from the balance of his inferior service over 11 years in length, and would be so far as pension is concerned be just as well off as if he had entered Government service 10 or 11 years later than he actually did. It appears to this Government inequitable that a public servant should in such a case forfeit all claim to pension in respect of ~~the balance~~ a large portion of his inferior service. ~~and~~ I am now to enquire whether the Government of India concurs in the view taken by the Accountant General as to the interpretation of Article 465 A, and if so to suggest that the terms of the Article should be so modified as to obviate the hardship which is caused by a rule which may have the effect of placing an officer of over 22 years service in a position no more favourable in regard to his pension than if his total service amounted to half that period.

3. I am to add that in the case, out of which this reference arises, the Government has condoned the deficiency in superior service, and granted the applicant a superior pension of Rs. 1-11-10, which it is desired to supplement by a gratuity of Rs.40 on account of the balance of over 11 years in his inferior service which remains after a deduction of double the deficiency in superior service.
