(4.) The Head Constable had the charge clearly put to him in Telugu but replies that at 6.30 A.M. as he ~~is~~ in uniform was writing guard Report. The Sub Magistrate came and found fault with him for having mentioned the keeping of Tahsildar's Coach no guard verandah and urged it was an obstruction that tended to facilitate escape of 19th Instant. It cannot be supposed ~~such~~ Sub Magistrate ~~came & found~~ deliberately invented a false charge and it is also clear that especially after recent escape the Head Constable should

Proceedings of the Dy: Insp. Genl. of Police
C. Range

Read. Appeal petition of 1st class Const. (late 4th Gr. Hd. Const.) No. 787 Shaikh Baban Cuddapah District against order of reduction.

" Minute

" Guard reports of 20 & 21 September/94

" Station House Reports of 20 & 21 Sept/94 of Jammalamadugu Station.

Appellant was reported by Sub Magistrate for being improperly dressed when in charge of Sub Jail on 21 Septr and not looking after prisoners out of ward.

~~Appll~~

Appellant in his explanation states Sub Magistrate came at 6½ A.M. to jail and found fault with him for reporting that Tahsildar's bandy was kept in verandah of Sub Jail.

Supdt. of Police reduced appellant to 1st class Constable.

Appellant in his appeal petition states Sub Magistrate abused him vilely at the time and that appellant reported this in his Treasury Guard Report of 20th.

Acting Deputy Insp. Genl. of Police called for this report and finds that appellant made no such report: Appellant remarked Sub Magistrate came to Sub jail during his absence. Such being the case appellant's statement in his appeal is false.

In the Station House Report of 21st the complaint of the Sub Magistrate is entered by the Station House Officer but the appellant makes no reference to the Sub Magte. in his Treasury Guard Report of 21st. Acting Deputy Inspr. Genl. of Police sees no good reason for disbelieving the Sub Magistrate's report.

Acting Deputy Inspr. Genl. of Police however considers reduction of appellant for 6 months will be sufficient. He therefore modifies Superintendent's order accordingly.

Judgment:— The H. C. in this case Sheik Baban was on duty in charge of the Treasury Guard at Jammalamadugu on the morning (& previous night) of 19th September 94. It is charged against him that he left his post. In fact he does not deny it. But probably nothing would have been heard of his offence had not a mala escaped that morning from the Sub. Jail. There are two witnesses, two P.C.s. who depose that he was away for 3/4 of an hour. No reliance can be placed on the evidence of the other two as it is very vague. But the accused admits that he did go away & to answer a ~~cla~~ call of nature. He says he was bound to leave the Kacheri Compound as the Thasildar would not let him use the jail Latrine and the Clerks only on an (~~every evening~~) (emergency). This assuredly was a case of emergency. There were some 16 or 17 accused, packed in the jail verandah with two Police Constables to guard them. Even though it was not accused's duty to stand over them. He should have exercised as a police man great circumspection. I am told that the Sanitary Authorities do not allow accused persons to remain in the cells during the day-time. This is hygenicly Capital. But a sufficient guard should also be provided. But that does not affect this Case. Taking the accused's own Statement he was off-duty some 3/4 of an hour, and is guilty. So the Conviction of Deputy Magistrate under 44 (a) act XXIV of 59 is affirmed.

2 I am told that the accused loses his 25 years Service & its attendant pension. That is a very serious penalty to an old man. The Deputy Magistrate has sentenced Sheik Baban to imprisonment (~~without~~ untill) the rising of the Court and a fine of Rs 28/. I dont know how ~~Sheik~~ Baban Can pay that. The sentence of fine will be remitted & if Collected returned to Sheik Baban. The imprisonment must stand (Signed) W. G. Underwood

Minute for the reduction of 4th Grade Head Constable Shaikh Baban to P.C. on 5.11.95

(1) 4th Grade Hd. Const. 787, Sheikh Baban, Proddatur station, 6 Division.

(2) Gross misconduct during investigation of a case of murder.

(3) This Head Constable being in temporary charge of station proceeded to investigation of case 94 Sec: 302, and, personally heard by Superintendent yesterday afternoon and this morning, admits

The Copy of inquest report attached to 6 Division Diary of 3.10.95 was written by himself and Proddatur Station report of same date though written by station writter was signed by himself. Called upon by Inspector Subbarayalu Chetty, and now by the Superintendent, to produce his note-book he asserts Inspector Govindaraja Modalyar, then incharge of Division took it from him on morning of 3.10.95 but but Inspector Govindaraja Mudalyar has reported this is false and when he asked this Head Constable to shew his note book he admitted he had written no notes. Sowdoor, the village of Crime, is 6 miles from Proddatur and it is clear and undisputed that 787 reached the village at or soon after day break on 1.10.95, completed inquest about 11 a.m. and despatched Corpse so that it reached Proddatur Dispensary by 4 P.M. and was examined same day, also that the 3 accused men were in village magistrate's Custody when 787 reached Sowdoor but were only treated as arrested and sent off to Station about 3 P.M on 2nd and reached Station in Custody of Constable 677 and some Kattoobadies about 7 P.M on ~~Sun~~ same day. Sowdoor Village magistrate has stated to Inspector Govindaraja Mudalyar and Subbarayulu Chetty that that 787 remained in Sowdoor doing nothing from 3. P.M. on 1st to noon on 2nd and then started for Proddatur with the 3 prisoners, Const. 677 and 4 Kattoobadies, and the 4 Kattoobadies have stated 787 left the party at Peddasettipalli and they and 677 took the prisoners on to Station. To the same Inspectors the Village magistrate of Peddasettipalli who lives at Kotapettah has stated Kattoobadies Nannay Saib, Venkatigadu and Subbadoo informed him on 3.10.95, Head Constable was drunk and slept on a pyal opposite chavady on previous night, but these Kattoobadies denied, knowing more than that, the Head Constable slept on pyal in question on night of 2.10.95. In Diary of 3.10.95 Inspector Govindaraja Mudalyar reported 787 only returned to station at 8. a.m. that day and in drawing attention ~~of~~ to the Careless preparation of the copy of inquest report produced by 787, brought to notice that it differed differed from that made by Village magistrate and shewn to him, in that it omitted particulars of Property found on Corpse and the statement of an important witness Gurivigadu.

(4) Head Constable 787 asserts he delayed taking the 3 prisoners into Custody until 3 P.M. on 2nd as there was no evidence against them, he examined one witness on afternoon of 1st and another a boy about 7 or 8 A.M. on 2nd, he did not examine the boy earlier as deceased's mother only named him on evening of 1st; he did not start with the prisoners from Sowdoor, as he wanted to take the witnesses with him; about 4 P.M. he left Sowdoor and about 8 P.M. he reached station with 3 witnesses; the same night he reported himself to Inspector Govindaraja Modalyar at his house, that Inspector took a bribe of Rs 150 from the prisoners and so has falsely reported against him. But he admits he took Complaint from deceased's mother at the inquest and he prepared inquest report about 10 A.M. on 1st; his Copy of inquest report and his report of investigation in Station Report of 3rd shew that altogether he examined only 2 witnesses, viz Obigadu and boy Gurivigadu, in addition to deceased's mother, and uncle, the statements of all but Gurivigadu appear in inquest report and the name of Gurivigadu is mentioned in Complaint of deceased's mother given in Station Report; and the village magistrate of Sowdoor asserts Gurivigadu was examined at inquest and the boy's statement appears in Copy of inquest Report which he shewed Inspector Govindaraja Modalyar on 3.10.95. On the evidence before him at inquest he had grounds for arresting the 3 accused. Even

Even if as he asserts he had not then heard of Guriwigadu; if he examined Guriwigadu only on morning of 2nd there was no possible excuse for further delay in taking the prisoners over from Village Magistrate's Custody.

His failure to join in escorting the prisoners to station when there was only one Constable available was inexcusable; apart from Inspector Govindaraja Modalyar's report he returned only at 8 a.m. on 3rd there is the evidence of Proddatur Station Report of 2nd which shews he did not return that day although advent of Prisoners is duly chronicled. As to the allegation Inspector Govindaraja Modalyar was bribed by the prisoners & it is sufficient to note he took effective measures to complete the case for the prosecution and the prisoners nevertheless have said nothing against him.

(5) Head Constable 787 is reduced to 2nd Class Const and released from suspension. He will draw only subsistence allowance (1/4 pay) for period passed under suspension.

(6) Has been suspended from 11-10-95.
