THE Secretary to Government,

Pension Department.

SIR,

With reference to the letter No. 555, P, dated the 4th instant, from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, a copy thereof was forwarded to me, I have the honour to state that, though the ruling disposes of the case actually referred, it is not clear that it disposes of the real question raised in paragraph 2 of my letter No. 144 P, dated 26 August 1895, namely whether, in a case like the present, a pension exceeding Rs 10 a month can be granted under the Police Superannuation

Quinto.

Fund rules. The Government of India may mean that, if the man is entitled to more than 10 rupees, the Local Government has the right to reduce the pension under Article 514, whilst if he is not entitled to more than 10 rupees, still, as the Government thinks, he may have 10 rupees it is not worth while discussing what is almost an academic question namely whether, he being only entitled to 10 rupees, the pension should have been further reduced, had the Local Government considered his conduct to have been unsatisfactory. I did not hold this view, or I would never have referred the case, but I quite admit that it is a possible one. The present case raises the issue directly, the amount granted by the Local Government being even after reduction more than 10 rupees and I ^{respectfully} request therefore that the Government of India be addressed in view to obtaining
