Ordered that a copy of this despatch be

To

His Excellency the Right Honourable, the Governor General of India in Council.

My Lord,

I have considered in Council the Memorial from
C. Vembily Mudali, late an Accountant in the Madras Revenue Survey Department, which was forwarded with your letter, No. 363, of the 25th of December last. I am of opinion that the memorialist, to whom a pension of Rs. 5-15-9 has been granted, has benefited by the introduction of the present pension rules in place of those which were in force when he entered the service of Government

4
Government, and under which he would have been eligible, on retiring after a qualifying service of 14 years 11 months, only for a gratuity of Rs. 300/. I am, therefore, unable to grant the concessions for which he asks, viz., the condonation of a deficiency of one month in the period of his service qualifying for pension, and the enhancement of his pension to Rs. 8-8-9 being one third of his average emoluments.

2. The memorialist should be informed accordingly.

I have &c,

Sd. George Hamilton.

Pensions and Gratuities.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE LORD GEORGE FRANCIS HAMILTON,
Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Calcutta, the 25th December 1895.

MY LORD,

WE have the honour to forward the accompanying memorial from C. Vembily Mudali, late an Accountant in the Madras Revenue Survey Department, praying for an enhanced pension.

2. The correspondence forwarded with this Despatch explains the circumstances of the case, which are briefly as follows:—The petitioner who has been granted a pension of R5-15-9 under the rules now in force, asks that the deficiency by which his qualifying service falls short of 15 years shall first be condoned, and that he shall then be granted the pension to which 15 years' service would have entitled him under the rules in force at the time when he entered the service.

3. Under the pension rules in force at the time that the petitioner entered the Government service, he would for his qualifying service of 14 years 11 months be entitled to a gratuity of 12 months' pay only, that is, R300, whereas, under the rules now in force, he has been granted a monthly pension of R5-15-9, the capital value of which at the time of his retirement was about R1,000. We, therefore, agreed with the Government of Madras that it would be unnecessarily liberal to condone the deficiency of one month in the petitioner's service, and at the same time to declare the old rules applicable to him, thereby entitling him to an enhanced pension. We, therefore, have no recommendation to make in the petitioner's behalf.

We have the honour to be,
