1. As ~~the~~ applicant had been on privilege leave only from 27th January to 8th March 1887, the two months and 15 days' privilege leave granted to him from 15th May 1889 would appear to be admissible under the rules. The figure 1887 written in an unintelligible way in the Service register appears to have given rise to the objection.

Ag Dy. Collector & Magistrate.

Ullal Raghunathiah has been for some months a clerk in my Dept: both before and after his appointment as Head Clerk in the General Deputy Collector's office. His conduct and character have always given me much satisfaction. He is a very intelligent, willing & painstaking and reliable public servant. I hope he will soon rise in the service.

My former remarks seem to have done him good. He has freed his mind of things which preoccupied it & is now more practical.

Ullal Raghunathayya was Hd. Clerk under me as ~~Assistant Collector~~ for nearly two years. I found him thoroughly reliable and hardworking, a little slow, perhaps arising from a fear of Error not a want of power of mind. His rectitude is unimpeachable and he is Eminently fitted for any post where uprightness is especially required.
