1st Class constable No 494 Vukojee of E or Nandyal Division is charged with negligently allowing a prisoner to escape from his custody.

Read Special Report of Inspector Varda Chary dated 15th March 1885 and its enclosures. It appears that a convicted prisoner on his way from Nandyal to the District Jail was escorted by Nos 494 & 107 and reached Vorakal Station about 5 P.M on 6.3.85. The prisoner was put into the lock-up by the Station House Officer No 161 and arrangements were made for watching him. No 494 was told off as 1st Sentry but he went off to the bazaar to get oil telling 107 who was cooking outside to look after the prisoner. In a short time 494 returned and found the prisoner gone. Search was made but he could not be found till arrested by a beat Constable at Kurnool. The padlock of the lock-up was found in good order, not locked, No 161 says he put the padlock on and told 494 to lock it. All the three men try to throw the blame on one another but the fact appears to be that the Station House Officer No. 161 was careless in locking up the prisoner, who on seeing no one in the Station tried the lock, found it open, and ran away. There was gross negligence on the part of No. 161 in not seeing that the prisoner was properly locked up and that there was lamp oil &c. ready in the Station: On the part of 494 in leaving the Station when he was Sentry without trying the lock, and merely telling 107 to have an eye on the prisoner; & on the part of 107 in not keeping watch when he found 494 going away & notwithstanding that 494's conduct was most irregular. Nos. 494, 161 & 107 are men of about 17, 4 & 1 years service respectively and are all of good character; they searched energetically for the prisoner after his escape and by promptly coming after him to Kurnool secured his arrest and conviction for escape. It is doubtful if these men or any of them would be convicted by a Court for allowing the escape as it would be difficult to show in whose custody the prisoner really was at the time of escape.

For these reasons I have decided not to direct their prosecution but punish them departmentally.

No. 494 is reduced to 2d class Constable
