Copy of Minute of 1st Class Const. No 416
Yagub Beg

A private individual by name Todda Poligadu gave information that some Katheras had concealed some stolen property near their huts where upon the Head Constable in question accompanied by Constables 416, 469, 464 went to their huts and discovered some clothes &c which they at once seized. They had no sooner seized the articles when they were found missing and these were no doubt taken away by some members of the Kathera gang to cause the disappearance of evidence. The Head Constable and Reserve Constable say that they made out the property to the Lower Constables 469, 464.
Constables 469, 464 on the other hand say that it was not made out to them formally but that it was taken away when they were all sitting together near the Kathera huts, the Head Constable at the time being engaged in writing a report to the station regarding the seizure of the property. The latter story is for the most probable one. I am of opinion that all were equally careless regarding the custody of the property.
Had the property been formally handed over to Lower Constables they would have marched to the station with it, where it would have been impossible for the Katheras to get hold of it. I am of opinion that all are equally responsible for the loss and that Head Const. acted very stupidly in not making the Constables secure the property before he sat down on the spot
