Reply

1. The appointment of Vicharippu formed part of the old Calcutta Establishment and the pay of the appointment was disbursed from Imperial funds. Hence service in the post is treated as pensionable and it has also been recognised as such by Government in many cases. Please see this office reply to para 3 of your letter to Adm dated 17th May 1893. It appears that no annual list of Establishment were submitted for Vicharippuzero.
- The correct date of the applicant's birth is 30th June 1839 as entered in his service book. The entries in the annual returns referred to appear to be clerical mistakes.
- The list relating to the Head Assistant Collector's office being much longer, it is not found feasible to submit a copy.
- Respectfully accordingly
