for Commissioner of Revenue Settlement

Remarks on the pension application of Cuddalore Ramasami Naidoo, Classified Revenue Settlement Party No VII, Godavari and Kistna.

From 10th November 1883 to 30th April 1884 the applicant's services were lent by Col C J Stuart the officer in charge of the Party, on application, to the Sub Court, Madura East, to be employed as a Commissioner in original suit No: 1 of 1883 on its file for fixing the boundaries of the fields belonging to the plaintiff in the suit in Kuvalaveli village Sivaganga Zamindari. For his work he was paid Rs 328-14-0 by the Court and no pay was given to him by Government nor did he make any contribution to Government towards pension while so employed on foreign service. In the pay bill of Temporary Establishment of Party No: III for the months referred to the applicant should have been shown as on leave on loss of pay; but this was not done, and only a remark was entered against his name that he was on special duty in the Surgeon Zamindari. During this interval early it was supposed that he was entitled to 3 months privilege leave, and he was granted privilege leave by Col C J Stuart, the then Deputy Director, for one and half months from 12th March to 26th April 1885 during which period he drew a leave allowance of Rs 27-3-5 at Rs 18 per measem. If the period during which he was employed as a Commissioner had been treated as leave on loss of pay he would not have been entitled to the privilege leave he enjoyed and to the allowances he drew.

It must however be noted that this incident took place during his non-qualifying service.

2. In the annual returns from 1891 to 1895 the date of applicants' appointment to the post of a Classified on Rs 20 was incorrectly entered as 1st March 1886.
It should be 1st January 1886 as he was confirmed with retrospective effect from the latter date.

3. In the annual return for 1894 the date of his appointment to an acting classified on Rs 24 was given as 16th September 1893. It should be 1st November 1892 as now entered in the pension-roll and in the Service Register.

4. In the annual returns subsequent to 1885 the applicants' name was shown simply as Ramasami pack without any initial letter to represent his house or Country name. The individual is however the same C Ramasami Naidoo now shown in the pension roll.
