Copy of Minute dated 31st March 1876.

No 431 L. fr Head Constable Laxuman Rao

1. At about 7 a.m. on 25th March one Bapoo Chetty ran into Kamarajekhar Station in great excitement and told the Head Constable that he had accidentally shot the Potel of Heroor, instead of at once going to the spot the Head Constable merely sent a Constable to see what was the matter, at about 11 a.m. Mulos arrived from Heroor and reported that the Potel had been wounded by Bapoo Chetty soon afterwards the Constable who had been sent there came back and reported full particulars, adding that the Potail was still alive and brought with him several witnesses. The Head Constable then took his food and did not start until 2 p.m. and by the time he reached Heroor the Potail was dead.

2. In his first reports and also also in Register the Head Constable made false entries to the effect that the first news of the murder was brought to him by Marlos at about noon and that he started off as soon as possible; when questioned by me he told endless lies. The Head Constable arrested Bapu Chetty on evening of 20th but did not bring him before the Sub-Magistrate at Kundapur until 22nd instant having, without the slightest reason, detained him at the Station House (Kerimanjeshwar) during the whole of ([illegible]) 21st, the delay was the most inexcusable as the prisoner had made a full confession which it was important to have been recorded as soon as possible. The Head Constable took no trouble in procuring coolies or other means of conveyance for the corpse, which consequently did not reach Kundapur (12 miles off) until late on 21st and no post mortem was therefore held until morning of 22nd instant the man having died before 3 a.m. on 20th.

3. Nothing could possibly have been worse than the Head Const' conduct in this case from first to last and he has aggravated his original offence by persistent lying.

No 431 Head Constable Laxuman Rau is reduced to 1st Cl Constable.

There are two grave entries against this man; he was a head constable 20 years ago & has gradually fallen to second class constable. The last reduction would in another year's time have reduced his max^m. pension to Rs. 5/8/-; thus by retiring now he escapes the full effect of that punishment.

Rs. 3/4/- suggested.
