Reply.

1(a) The correct date of the applicant's first appointment is 14th March 1870 as given in the Service Register and the pension application. The date given in the annual return seems a clerical error.

(b) The correct date of the applicant's appointment as Muzur Sheriadar is 9th December 1888. The date 10th December 1888 given in the annual return seems wrong.

(c) The necessary alterations have been made in the Service Register and pension application.

2. On April 1st 1892 the applicant was under suspension and it is an omission to show him as Tahsildar Kottayam, in the annual return for that year.

3. The applicant was dismissed on September 20th 1894, but on appeal, the order of dismissal was converted into one of retirement. The copies of orders on the subject are enclosed.

4(a) From 9-12-88 to 9-12-89 the applicant had been acting as Muzur Sheriadar, in the vacancy caused by the deputation of the permanent incumbent as Deputy Collector. The post was not fully vacant.

(b) From 10-12-89 to 17-3-90 the applicant had been acting in a Sub pro tempore vacancy caused by the deputation of the permanent incumbent in a Sub pro tempore vacancy as Deputy Collector.

(c) From 18-3-90 to 31-5-90 same remarks as against (b).

(d) From 1-6-90 to 18-11-92 same remarks as against (b).

(e) From 19-11-92 to 16-11-93 out of the period from 19th 11-92 to 18-1-93. the applicant was acting as Tahsildar Kottayam in the privilege leave arrangement of M.R.C. Govindan, permanent Tahsildar & from 19-1-93 to 16-11-93. the applicant was acting in the deputation arrangement of C. K. Govindan as acting Tahsildar Kottayam, in consequence of the appointment of the permanent incumbent as acting Deputy Collector.

5. The copy of G.B. is herewith forwarded.

6. The omission pointed out might be a clerical error.

7. As his residence in Kottayam affected his health, he was transferred to the plains on reduced pay as Tahsildar of Kottayam on Rs 175. Vide copy of Ballantyne's Proceedings no 6304 dated 7th December 1887 and copy of letter of the Board no 1616 dated 13th June 1888. herewith forwarded.

Respectfully
for acting collector

I think we should recommend to S. 7. to sanction a pension of Rs 75. The Sec. of Prob. order was made A. Chathu and he allowed the pension to his services entitled him at the date of dismissal. As the Sec. says, this means that he did receive the pension to his services and have entitled him if he had been invalided - with effect from the date of dismissal. If his services had been unexceptionable he wd. have been entitled to a maximum pension of Rs 77. 2.
On account of the misconduct reported in A.D. Pro. 1 Nov 92 (S.O.
28 Nov 92 No. 5162) the maximum pension must be reduced; but considering all the circumstances of the case, & the extent to which the man has been punished already (part of which has been decided by the Sec. of Prob. to have been too severe) I think a reduction to Rs 75 will be sufficient. I don't think anything would be gained by the refusal to the A.D. with the L.S. suggests. 18/5/96

FOR ORDERS.

Please see the Acct. Genl's report. The applicant was dismissed from the service on the 20 Sept. 1894, vide S.O. of 30 Aug. 1894, No. 2107 Judicial. On appeal to the Secretary of State, the order of dismissal was commuted into one of retirement on the pension to which his services entitled him at the time of dismissal - vide Secretary of State's Despatch in G.O. of 16-11-95 No. 2361 Judl. In this G.O. it was stated that the necessary orders for the payment of pension would issue in time department. Accordingly the Collector of Malabar was requested to submit the usual pension application on behalf of the applicant through the Acct. Genl. Hence this application.
The Acct. Genl. certifies that the applicant is not qualified for a pension under the rules of the C.S.R. He says that an invalid pension is not admissible, because the applicant has not been pronounced unfit for further service by the Medical

medical authorities, nor a Superannuation pension as he is not 55 years old, nor even a ~~bad~~ compensation pension as he was not thrown out of employ owing to reduction of establishment, nor a retiring pension, as he has not put in 30 years' pensionable service. Under ordinary circumstances he would have been, for his qualifying service of 23 years total, entitled to a pension of Rs 77-8-2 being $\frac{23}{60}$ of his average emoluments. The Secy. Genl. however, suggests that, if in consideration of the favorable view taken by the Secy of State the application be admitted by this Govt, the case may, under art. 1002 of the C.S.R., be referred to the Govt. of India for the grant of such pension as this Govt may think fit to recommend. The applicant's character is recorded as "indifferent." For orders.

Secy.
22/4 Presumably the Secy of State intends that Chatter should receive the pension which would have been awarded to him if invalidated with effect from the date of his dismissal. The compulsory retirement must be taken as wiping out his misconduct in the Badayun case on account of which no deduction should be made from the pension admissible. - The question for decision is whether his previous service is marked by any misconduct such as to justify a reduction. The Collector styles his character "indifferent" but does not enter into particulars; the papers forwarded give in details except a provisional order of suspension passed by Mr Dumergue on 2 July 1891. Subm. (12) that the Board should be

If this came up as an ordinary case of invalid pension, I should say that the proposed reduction of Rs 2-8-2 was insufficient considering the man's former history. As things are, I think Rs 75 may be allowed - hardly say, I don't agree with that S. of S. But that is another question called on for an early report as to whether Chatter's character & service prior to the Badayun incident ^{were} such as to warrant any deduction from his pension.

In view of the Secy of State's opinion that he should not have been dismissed it is possible that Govt. may not wish to make any deduction from his pension. The pension should of course be drawn from the date of dismissal.

27.4.91

Please see P.O. 220 Nov 1892 No 5162 Rev. regarding the B.P. regarding Chatter. He was found guilty of misconduct & unnecessary delay in reporting on an accident case, of having made a number of false statements regarding it & suppressing information which should have been given, & of having given a disingenuous, inaccurate & misleading explanation of his delay. He had been under suspension for 16 months & the Board in addition removed him from the post of ^{at present} ~~acting~~ Nagar Chaitadar on P.O. 225 to 2.4.91 on P.O. 175. Against this punishment he appealed but his appeal was rejected on P.O. 16 March 1893 No. 1153.

6.5.91

In C. 406 once read Chatter says that early order may be passed on his pension case

The S. of S. no doubt intends that Chatter should receive the pension which would have been awarded to him if invalidated, with effect from date of dismissal. Chatter's service if given wd entitle him to a pension of Rs 77-8-2. His character however is given as indifferent, and G.O. No 1155 of 18th March 94 rejected his appeal against the Gov's order of suspension & reduction for very serious misconduct.

 In ordinary circumstances a reduction in the amount of the pension wd be made for such misconduct. Should any reduction now be made if in requesting the sanction of the Govt of India to the grant of pension.

Pet. A. Chathan

Letter to the Secy to the Govt. of India, Home Dept.
 No. 452

Sir

I am directed in the circumstances about below to recommend the grant of a special pension of Rs 75/- per mensem to A. Chathan, late Tah. of Badagara in the Malabar District, who was dismissed for in August 1894 for cowardice & mismanagement resulting in the unnecessary sacrifice of the life of a lunatic Noplah.

Against the order of dismissal he appealed to the Secretary of State to whom ^{his} memorial was forwarded with a ^{despatch} from the Govt dated 1st July 1895 a copy of which was forwarded to the Govt of India with Mr. Price's letter of 12 July 1895 to 2467 Jnl. - The Secretary of State in passing orders on the memorial remarked that "a less severe punishment than dismissal would have been adequate" & that it would have been preferable to transfer the memorialist "to some lower office where he would not have to undertake the responsibilities of magisterial duty." This lordship excluded. - In present circumstances I do not propose that this course should be taken but I desire that the memorialist may be allowed the pension to which his services entitled him at the time of his dismissal.

2 On the receipt of these instructions orders were issued directing that a pension application should be prepared on behalf of the memorialist & this has now is sent his Dismissal to the Govt.

no. 4 Jnl. of 3-10-95

(75: 221 1895)

been submitted to Govt through the Accountant-General who certifies that Chattri's total qualifying service amounts to 23 years and 84 days & that, if retired, ^{under ordinary circumstances} ~~on medical certificate~~ he would be eligible for a pension of Rs 77-8-2 being $\frac{23}{60}$ his average emolument. The sanction of the Govt of India is however necessary to the grant of ~~any~~ pension, inasmuch as ~~Chattri is not 55 years of age,~~ ~~has not completed 30 years service,~~ ~~is not eligible for either a superannuation~~ Chattri's appointment has not been abolished, his total service is less than 30 years, his age is less than 55; and he has not been pronounced ^{physically} unfit for further service; he is thus ineligible for a compensation, ~~save~~ retiring, superannuation or invalid pension.
3. The Secretary of State's intention no doubt is that Chattri should receive the pension which would have been awarded to him if invalided with effect from the date of his dismissal. The Accountant-General certifies that the maximum amount admissible is Rs 77-8-2 but this is subject to any deduction which may be deemed requisite with reference to the provisions of Art. 574 of the C.R.

The compulsory nature of the retirement must be regarded as sufficient punishment for the misconduct which formed the subject of Chatter's appeal to the Secretary of State, but his previous record is not altogether satisfactory.

On 4th November 1892 he was reduced by the Board of Revenue from the post of Bazar Sheristadar (sub-pro-tem) on Rs 225 to that of Sd. on Rs 175 for inordinate delay in the disposal of an escheat case coupled with the submission of reports containing false statements & suppressing information which should have been given. His explanation of these charges was characterized by the Board as "disingenuous, inac-curate & misleading". - The Board's order was, on appeal, confirmed by Govt.
Misconduct of this character would ordinarily entail a substantial deduction in the amount of pension but in the peculiar circumstances of this particular ^{case} I am to say that H.E. the G. in C. considers that it will suffice to make a small deduction from the total amount admissible, and to recommend the grant of a special
