SUBJECT.

Legal petition
Praying for favourable order in his case.

The pet. states as follows.
On the 1st February last the pet. presented a petition to Govt. stating that he was a retired soldier and permanent classifier and praying for pension on the ground that there are orders permitting him to do so.
The Govt. has been praying for pension ever since 1001 1893 the date of his retirement. The pet. has put in a service of 30 years and prays that his case may be referred to the Govt. of India for favourable consideration and that if this is not feasible, that he may be permitted to address the Govt. of India direct. In conclusion he prays for the return of the 8 enclosures to his petition of the 1st Feb.

petitioner as requested.

The Govt. does not consider that

2. There are any circumstances in the petitioner's case which would warrant a recommendation being made to the Govt. of India on his behalf.

3. With reference to his request that he may be permitted to address the Govt. of India direct on the subject, he will be referred to rule I sec. I of the S.D. petition rules.
