The said Singariah applied for the benefit of the Insolvent Act and the whole burden of the debt incurred by him fell on me. I being a poor man on a poor salary was compelled to have recourse to the Insolvent Act and I was fully discharged by the High Court unopposed.

by the creditors as they knew full well
that I was not the party who borrowed money. During this period I was suspended in the office awaiting for the orders of Government to reinstate me; but I was given a maintenance allowance of Rs 3½ during that period. The orders of Government on the subject were that the said Singarick should not be reinstated but that I may be given a post at the discretion of the Superintendent. Thereupon he conferred a post of Rs 10/- on me, but one Mr. Joseph, the Head Draftsman being in inimical terms towards me, wrote something bad against me and I was not conferred the post. I again represented the matter to the Superintendent and he conferred on me a temporary post carrying Rs 10/-.
This post continued for only 3 months, being taken away on account of reduction in 1888.
Since then being deprived of my bare ~ sustenance, my mind became deranged and I fell ill accompanied by various misfortunes.
I was wandering in the up country being compelled to do so on account of my insanity

insanity as I should call it. It is only very recently that I came to Madras.

I therefore most humbly pray
that in consideration of the above ~ circumstances the Government will be pleased to confer a pension or a gratuity
on this poor man with his large and helpless family and save them from starving.

I beg to remain,
Honored Sir,

Mr. Lambrey says to state that he has felt seriously ill and being very much unable to attend office, he was obliged to apply for leave; but he never anticipated that he was obliged to be having absence of any length. Now, some after his recovery, he went to office and on his reflection, the true facts of his having been ill are a hindrance to him in the latter part of the year - the time to do so.

That in March 1857 H. was engaged in carrying on the freight of the mail boat, and while on duty a severe illness attacked him, and he was obliged to be absent from the office for some time.
H. was again engaged in the same service in March 1858,
and again a severe illness attacked him, and he
was obliged to be absent from the office for some time.
H. was again engaged in the same service in March 1859,
and again a severe illness attacked him, and he
was obliged to be absent from the office for some time.

Query

1. Information should be furnished as to the nature of the duties performed by the applicant as a Typist. If there be a precedent in which a pension or gratuity on the Superior Scale has been sanctioned to a Typist, the Government order sanctioning it, should be quoted.

Reply

The applicant was employed in printing with types, numbers, and names of villages in the drawing of a map. The precedent in which a pension on the Superior Scale has been sanctioned to a Typist is the case of R. Rengasami Nayudu who was a Typist and a compositor in the Central Survey Office, Madras, & to whom a pension of Rs. 13.4 was awarded by G.O. No. 928 dated 28 August 1903.

2. Attention is invited to No. 5 (c) of the printed Memo of instructions from the Accountant General's office in regard to the applicants' suspension in June 1881 and to his dismissal in January 1888.

The original correspondence regarding the applicants' suspension in June 1881 & his dismissal in January 1888 is not on record. Affidavit of the applicant is sent herewith.

3. Information should be furnished as to the dates from & up to which the applicant was absent without leave in consequence of which he was suspended from employment in June 1881. It should also be explained why the period of absence was not shown in the history of service & deducted from his qualifying service.

Copy of Pay bill for June 1881 shows that Rs 2. 5. 4 being the pay of the applicant for 10 days from 14 to 23 June 1881 (during which he absented himself without leave) was stopped. The same period was treated as under suspension. This has already been shown in the history of service & deducted from his qualifying service.

4. Explanation of the ground on which the applicant was recommended for a separate gratuity for his earlier service under article 43b of the Civil Service Regulations whilst under the rules in force at the time of his removal in January 1888, he was not entitled to it.

The applicant was not recommended for any gratuity for the reasons given in Superintendent's letter to Government No 598 dated 24 March 96. The amount of proposed gratuity of Rs 73. 8. — shown against heading No 12 on the 1st page of the gratuity Roll including the separate gratuity of Rs 21 for his earlier service under article 43b of the Civil Service Regulations is a mistake. The amount Rs 73. 8. — is now corrected as Rs 52. 8. —.

5. Heading No 9 on the 1st page of the application should be filled in.

Heading No 9 on the 1st page of the application has now been filled in as follows: —

"Compensation under articles 468 and 518(a) of the Civil Service Regulations."

6. The delay in the submission of this application should be explained.

The applicant's Memorial to Government praying for the grant of gratuity was received in this office on the 22 February 1896. It was submitted together with his application for gratuity with this office letter No 598 dated 24 March 96.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

Certified that should Government be pleased to commute the applicant's absence without leave on the days noted in the margin into leave without allowances as required by article 464 of the Civil Service Regulations qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for 5 years and 5 days.

Against heading 9 on the first page of the application, the gratuity applied for is stated to be a compensation gratuity under article 468 civil Service Regulations, but as stated by the Superintendent Madras Survey in his letter No 578 dated 24 March 1896, the applicant's service terminated in consequence of suspensions which was not followed by reinstatement. Under Articles 460(a) and 463(c) of the Civil Service Regulations he is therefore not entitled to any gratuity under the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations.
