Sir,

With reference to your letter of 30th April 1896 No 45 in the matter of the application for gratuity of Pattaputha Brahm Sab late 2nd Class Process Peon of this Court I have the honor to report as follows:—

I The names Spelt Peria Bramsah, E-Piramsah, Ebramsa, and Biramsa in the old records are identical with the name Pattaputha Brahm Sab given in the application

II The present Scale of the Process Service Establishment Came into force from 1st April 1884. There was also a Slight

III Slight modification of it from 1st November 1884. (High Court Registrar's Letter No 3021 dated 15th October 1884 with reference to G. O 2373 Judicial 16th September 1884) For this reason both the dates (1st April and 1st November 1884) appear to have been given in the annual returns.

III The discrepancy in the amount of pay (Rs 6) entered in the return for 1st April 1889 and that entered in the 2d page of the application is explained in the note at the beginning of the 6th page of the Service Book.

I have the honor to be,

Simla, the 19th May 1896.

Department of Revenue and Agriculture.

(P A & Mus:)

Sir,

In reply to your letter No.279, dated the 6th ultimo, to the address of Secretary to the Government of India in the Finance Department, I am directed to say that the Government of India accept the recommendation of the Government of Madras that the service, from 17th January 1859 to 4th December 1895 of T.Rajagopaul Mudali, late a Hamal in the Government Central Museum, Madras, whose case resembles that of Trichinopoly Abell which was dealt with in Finance Department letter No. $\frac{\text{P.}}{5199}$ dated 17th October 1894 should be treated as qualifying for pension.

2. Fourteen other persons are reported to be holding appointments similar to those held by T. Abell and Rajagopaul Mudali. The Government of India are willing that the periods during which these officials were paid from the monthly allowance sanctioned for the up-keep of the Madras Central Museum should also be treated as pensionable service, and the

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following G.O., No. 278, Pension, dated 6th April 1896:—

Read—letter from the Superintendent, Government Central Museum, dated 12th December 1895, No. 741.

Read—certificate and report from the Accountant-General, dated 20th February 1896, No. 641-A.D.J.

Order—No. 278, Pension, dated 6th April 1896.

Ordered that the Government of India be addressed.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) A. T. ARUNDEL,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

Letter—from the Honourable Mr. A. T. ARUNDEL, I.C.S., Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras, Pension Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 279, dated 6th April 1896.

I am directed to submit, for the orders of the Government of India, the pension case of T. Rajagopaul Mudali, late a Hamal in the Government Central Museum, Madras.

2. The applicant was a Hamal in the Government Central Museum from the 17th January 1859 to the 4th December 1895, when he was retired on a medical certificate of incapacity for further service, and recommended for a retiring allowance. Up to the 20th April 1886, i.e., for 29 years, 3 months and 4 days, his salary was paid from the monthly allowance sanctioned for the upkeep of the institution; this period of service, as the Accountant-General points out, does not qualify for pension under Article 398, Civil Service Regulations, while his subsequent service for nine years and seven days, which was rendered in permanent and pensionable appointments, does not count for pension, as it commenced after the 1st April 1880 and after he had attained the age of 40 years. ×

3. Adverting, however, to the parallel case of T. Abell, whose service, paid out of the Central Museum allowance, was allowed by the Government of India to count for pension, I am to request that the indulgence granted in that case may now be granted to the applicant. If this is sanctioned, his whole qualifying inferior service will amount to 36 years, 10 months and 4 days, entitling him to an invalid pension of Rs. 4 per mensem.

× See G.O. 1372/30.10.94 Fin M

4. I am to add that the present case is one of a series of no less than fourteen cases which are likely to come up for the sanction of the Local Government, and am accordingly to request that the Supreme Government will permit this Government to treat the remaining cases as pensionable upon the same lines.

Read—also the following letter from F. G. SLY, Esq., C.S., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture (P.A. and Mus.), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Pension Department, dated Simla, the 19th May 1896, No. 1251—20-2:—

In reply to your letter, No. 279, dated the 6th ultimo, to the address of Secretary to the Government of India in the Finance Department, I am directed to say that the Government of India accept the recommendation of the Government of Madras that the service, from 17th January 1859 to 4th December 1895 of T. Rajagopaul Mudali, late a Hamal in the Government Central Museum, Madras, whose case resembles that of Trichinopoly Abell which was dealt with in Finance Department letter, No. 5199-P., dated 17th October 1894, should be treated as qualifying for pension.

2. Fourteen other persons are reported to be holding appointments similar to those held by T. Abell and Rajagopaul Mudali. The Government of India are willing that the periods during which these officials were paid from the monthly allowance sanctioned for the upkeep of the Madras Central Museum should also be treated as pensionable service, and the Government of Madras are authorized to dispose of their cases accordingly.

Order—No. 501, Pension, dated 19th June 1896.

Under the sanction conveyed in the foregoing letter from the Government of India, and, under Articles 485 and 524 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tinnanore Rajagopaul Mudali, late Head Hamal, Government Central Museum, Madras, an invalid pension of Rs. (4) four only per mensem payable at Madras, from the 5th December 1895 in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of 36 years, 10 months and 4 days.

2. The sanction of the Government of India to treat as pensionable the service of fourteen other persons rendered in temporary appointments similar to that of T. Rajagopaul Mudali in the Government Central Museum will be communicated to the Accountant-General.
