 He is, in my opinion, unfit to perform the duties of a Police Constable and that the disease was brought on by smoking Ganja.

Station House Officer B Town reports that he received a complaint from 2nd CC no 898 m. Marsannah that he was stabbed by the 2CC no 684 in the chest, back shoulder and left side with a small knife and that blood was shed through the wounds caused. The Comptt and the accused were brought to the station. The Station House Officer examined the wounds on the person of the Comptt and found them very slight ones. He then sent both the Comptt and the accused to the Chicreole medical officer to grant the requisite certificates. I beg to submit that both the Comptt and the accused are quiet men and they bear not the least grudge against each other; which fact is clearly stated by the Comptt and the accused as well as the other men of the station. The accused is a Gayia eater & has become totally mad in consequence. I remonstrated with him more than once to leave off that bad practice but my remonstrances were of no avail. For the last fortnight he has been.

attending to his duties with an unsound mind and he used to prostrate at the feet of each and every one that he had come across for nothing. Seeing the state of things I ordered the Town Station House officer to send the man to the medical officer for treatment. The medical officer examining him declined to admit him into the hospital as he was fit for duty, but was of opinion that he is a Ganga eater.

When the accused was asked what made him to commit the offence in question, he denied having any remembrance of his action and cried aloud.

A week ago he even went to the length of resigning his post but afterwards withdrew the same.

He is now admitted into the hospital and doing all sorts of mad actions in it. He is given two Constables to wait on him. From the foregoing circumstances I beg to state that if the medical officer grants him a Certificate that he is a man of unsound mind, I think the action of the accused would amount to no offence under Sec 84 IPC General Exception Chapo. Anyhow he will be of no use in future if he does not mind his bad practice.
