SIR,

In returning herewith your letter no. A.D.H. 66 dated 7.5.96 together with its enclosures, I have the honor to explain as follows the various discrepancies therein pointed out.

2 (1) (a) The applicant is shown as permanent from 21.7.1880 in both the Service Register and the Annual returns of 1883 and Subsequent years up to 1896. From the pay abstracts it is observed that he was first appointed on probation in the place which was then permanently vacant and continued to hold that place up to January 1883 when he is shown as permanent from 17th January 1883. During that period he had also acted in higher grades. In the next annual return (1883) his date of first appointment is entered as 21.7.1880. The inference from this is that he was confirmed with a retrospective effect from 21.7.1880 the date on which he was appointed on probation. The entries in the Service Register which were made in 1886 must have been based on this. No records are forthcoming about it.

(6) The office copy of the Annual returns of 1889 shows the correct date viz 21.7.1880. The date referred to in your objection memo is entered opposite to the name "Kharazma" which is read below the name of the applicant Kassim Sahib.

(2) Necessary insertion is now made. It was thought sufficient to note the fact in the letter which accompanied the application.

(3) Under note to Article 392, an inferior servant reemployed after once being discharged on Compensation pension or gratuity is eligible for gratuity or pension. In this case, the applicant was employed in the old Revenue Police from 7th July 1858 to 25th September 1860 and was discharged owing to reduction of establishment on 25.9.1860; but he got no gratuity as he had not put in sufficient service entitling him to the same. It was on this ground that the gratuity was recommended.

I have the honor to be Your most obedient servant
