Fort St. George,
Accountant-General's Office,
5th June 1896.

Forwarded to Government.
W. Ranganayakulu who was granted a Retiring pension of Rs 3-8- per mensem under Government Order No. 123 dated 7th February 1893, obtained re-employment in the Kistna Collectorate without the fact of his re-employment being reported to this office before February '96, when the pension changed his usual nonemployment certificate into one of employment. This office at once objected to the irregular payment and ordered the recovery of Rs 123-13-8 being the amount overdrawn up to November '95.
Should Government see fit there is no objection to sanction being accorded for his reemployment with retrospective effect under Article 576, Civil Service Regulations, in which case he can draw pay in addition to his pension.

Order 1st July 1896 No. 543.

The Govt. sees no reason to sanction

Note
The draft order follows precedent.
G.O. 102 5.2.96 Pension.
The reemployment of the pensioner referred to.
The amount irregularly drawn by the pensioner in question will however be written off the accounts.

For order
The pay of the applicant being Rs 12/- there are strong grounds for the re-employment of this man. No one but a pensioner wld. take the billet
To the Bd of Rev. L.R. 16-5-96 a.g.

I question whether these could be regarded as "the strong public grounds" required by the Govt. of India. They are very strong grounds indeed for raising the pay of the mistahad.
