Their evidence goes to show that the accused left Kudair on the morning of 10th November, went to Dharmavaram on the noon of the same day by train & returned to his station on the 13th morning.

2. The accused admits having left his station & gone to Dharmavaram on the 10th November & absented himself from duty till the 13th idem. He pleads that he did so as his son was dangerously ill at Dharmavaram. He states that on ~~the~~ receipt of message on the 10th morning of his son's serious illness, he wrote an application for leave & gave it together with the letter he had received to Chinna Akbar Sahib, prosecution 3rd wit. asking him to send it on to the Police Inspector & handed over charge of the station to the same Constable & started at once to Anantapur to take leave personally either from the Police Inspector or the Superintendent of Police, that when he reached the toll gate near the Collector's Bungalow he was informed that both the Inspector & the Superintendent had gone to Singanamala ~~Singanamala~~ Sd & that as at that time the train arrived at the Railway Station fearing he would miss it he ran & got into it & went away to Dharmavaram

Fourth witness Meah Saib is a Revenue Peon of the Anantapur Tq. He states that on the 10th November last at about 10.30. Dharmavaram about a month ago, the defendant's female relatives paid him Cooly & sent him with a letter to the defendant at Kadiri as the defendant's son was sick. He accompanied the defendant as far as the toll gate near the Collector's Bungalow, where when the 4th defence witness informed them of the absence of the Police Inspector, the defendant went towards the Railway Station as the train there arrived.
4. This is all the defence evidence & it appears to me to hold no water. In the first place it is improbable the defendant would have given the leave application to Akbar Saib when he was himself proceeding to Anantapur to take leave from his superior personally. ally. It would have in all probability taken it with him. Akbar Saib entirely denies having received the leave application and states the defendant left the Station without permisthat the defendant had left the Station to Dharmavaram wired to the Inspector of the latter to ascertain if the defendant was there.

The defendant states he knew of the receipt of this telegram by the Dharmavaram Inspector but nevertheless he did not go

Inspector is deaf and did not hear him properly as there was also much noise & breeze on the bund where they were standing. Whatever this may be his appearance on the tank bund on the evening of the very day when he arrived in Dharmavaram negatives the serious illness of his son. It is also inexplicable why an Anantapur man should have been sent with a letter instead of a resident of Dharmavaram. Thus the extenuating circumstances adduced by the defendant are matters open to question. Granting his son was sick he should not have left his post till he received permission. The discipline of the Police force will seriously be affected if this sort of delinquencies are continued or condoned. This is especially so when the delinquent is a Station House Officer. It is also in evidence that on the very day the defendant left his station there was a case of murder in his station limits & no inquest was immediately held nor immediate investigation made during the defendant's absence and it is urged that there may be failure

Part IV This day I got information that Hd Cons: No: 48 of Dhudari went away without leave to Dharmavaram by train. I was told that he had been doing this frequently and I spoke to E Div. Inspector about this.

I sent E Div a Telegram to enquire (I have since received a reply that he saw the man on eve of 10th and that he said he was on leave) & in the mean while I sent an "express" to Dhudari addressed to S.H.O to appear before me at once with Roster and Occ: rept & Crime register. I also took precaution that if the keys of the desk were not with the "Station watch" Constable, the Constable was to break open the lock. At 3 A.M. Cons: 202 & the "Express" Constable returned & reported that Head Constable No: 48 was not in the Station & the documents required were brought. I find from the Roster of Duty that the Constables have all been told off on duty on 10th, but Head Cons: has not given his No.?? This goes to shew that he meant to fill it up as suited him best.

And as well I have seized this roll and sent the telegram to E.I. Dn. Inspector. The Railway orderly at Anantapur also told me that Head Constable went by 11 A.M. train (10th) in undress.

Thudai is an important station and just now when Dacoities are rife, leaving his post without permission is disgraceful on the part of a 2d G. H.C. If Supt: does not order his prosecution, I would recommend his reduction to H.C. Con: I have also informed to H.C.
