Translation of Kyfiat dated the 25th February 1896 taken from Dalayat Gaufam Shaik Hussain.

I know perfectly well that Muchi Akula Lakshmanna was first appointed in the Bapatla Taluk (Kristna District) as a party peon in the year 1861. Sometime after I entered the Department, he joined the party. Lakshmikantaram was then the Supervisor. Lakshmanna continued to serve with me as a peon until the end of 1863. In 1864 he came to the Bandar Head Quarters Office for recess. I know that Lakshmanna was serving in the Kristna Party until he came to the Kurnool District.

As all this took place very long ago, I cannot say whether he was absent on leave or not. I can, however, say for certain that he was serving from 1861 up to the date of his coming

Translation of an Affidavit dated the 26th February 1896 from pensioned Dalayet Sarihaddu Pullayya -

I was a party peon working in the Supervisor's Office - When I was working in the Supervisor's Office in the years 1861, 1862, & 1863, I remember to have seen Akula Lakshmudu as a party peon, bringing every now and then to the Supervisors Office, tappal covers containing weekly progress reports Monthly accounts Arzees &ca - In the beginning of the year 1864 the whole of the Field Establishment came to Bandar for recess - I remember then that Lakshmudu also came there.

I remember also that it was only during the year 1864 the whole party moved to the Kurnool District and that I myself with some others and Lakshmudu were all working in Cuddapah at time of the cyclone in

Bandar. I can therefore say from my memory that Akula Lakshmudu was serving as a party peon in the years 1861, 1862, 1863, & 1864 but I cannot remember whether he was absent on leave or not at any time during these periods - This is all that I remember -

I am informed that, during the preparation of my pension papers, pay bills for certain periods of my service are not forthcoming in the records.

1864 the Party went to the Bandar Head quarters office, where I was working for about a year. I then accompanied the records that were sent to Kurnool & reported myself to M. R. Ry Sankara Row Pantulu Garu at the Huzur office. I was then ordered to go and work under orders of Pulijala Ramanuja Row Garu who was the Supervisor of the 1st Combined party.

The fact of my having been in service in the Kristna Settlement Party is well known to Nallanachakravartula Gopalacharlu who is now a pensioner at Anantapur and also to (1) Ganjam Shaik Hussain (2) Sarihaddu Pullayya (3) Mahomed Pacha. The latter 3 (three) men had been working with me and they all can say what they know about me. Sarihaddu Pullayya and Mahomed Pacha are pensioners I request that they may be Examined and that my service in question counted towards pension.

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for pension on behalf of Akula Lakshmudu, the Muchi of this Party, with the necessary papers noted in the margin.

Resolution.

The application for pension on behalf of Akula Lakshmudu, Muchi, received with the letter read above, will be returned to the Deputy Commissioner No. I Party with the following remarks.

2. The medical certificate granted to the applicant shews that he is unfit for the duties of a "peon", while the man's appointment is shewn as "Kuchi" in the Service Register and pension application. Unfitness for the former post does not necessarily imply unfitness for the latter also. The Deputy Commissioner is therefore requested to report further on the point, after consulting the District Surgeon, if necessary.

3. The number of enclosures noted in the margin of this letter is only 6, but the number actually received is 17. In future, the Deputy Commissioner is requested to furnish, with all pension applications, a correct list of enclosures.
