No. 307 OF 1895.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES.

To
THE RIGHT HONOURABLE LORD GEORGE FRANCIS HAMILTON,
Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 30th October 1895.

MY LORD,

WE have the honour to forward the accompanying memorial from C. Subraya Naicker, late a computer in the Madras Presidency, praying for an enhanced pension and for other relief.

The correspondence forwarded with this despatch explains the circumstances of the case. Briefly, the petitioner, who has been granted a pension of Rs. 4-8-9 a month under the rules now in force, asks that the deficiency by which his qualifying service falls short of 15 years shall first be condoned, and that he shall then be granted the pension to which 15 years' service would have entitled him under the rules in force at the time when he entered the service.

2. Under the pension rules in force at the time that the petitioner entered the Government service, he would, for his qualifying service of 14 years, 3 months and 7 days, be entitled to a gratuity of 12 months' pay only, i.e., Rs. 234, whereas under the rules now in force he has been granted a monthly pension of Rs. 4-8-9 at the rate of $\frac{14}{60}$ ths of his pay, the capital value of which at the time of his retirement was about Rs. 700. We therefore agreed with the Government of Madras that it would be unnecessarily liberal to condone the deficiency of 8 months and 23 days in the petitioner's service, and also to declare the old rules (which for an officer retiring after 15 years' service were more favourable than the new) applicable to him, thereby entitling him to an enhanced pension. We, therefore, have no recommendation to make in the petitioner's behalf.

We have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servants,

(Signed) G. S. WHITE.

Received

Memorial of C. Subraya Naicker, late a Computer in the Madras Revenue Survey Department, praying for an enhanced pension.

Despatch from the Secretary of State No. 216 dated 5th
December 1895.

I have considered in Council your letter
No. 307 of the 30th of October, and agree with your Excellency in thinking that there is no reason for granting the prayer of C. Subraya Naicker, that a deficiency of 8 months and 23 days in the period of his service for pension should be condoned, and that the old pension rules should then be applied to his case.
It is clear that he has considerably benefited by the introduction of the new rules.

2. The Memorialist should be informed accordingly.
